General Pershing Dies at Capital; World War I Hero

Dies at 87

'Blackjack' Was 87 Years of Age; Ill Since 1938 of Rheumatism

Washington, July 15 (AP)—General John J. "Blackjack" Pershing, who led American troops to victory in World War I, died early today at the age of 87.

Announcement of the general's death was made by President Truman through White House aides, after he had learned of it upon his return from the Democratic National Convention at Philadelphia.

The aged former chief of staff had been ill since February 1938 when he was stricken at Tucson, Ariz., by a form of rheumatism which affected his heart muscles. He came close to dying at that time, but rallied with a display of fighting spirit which amazed his physicians.

Since then, he had lived at Walter Reed Hospital here, in recent years staying in a wing built especially for him.

Death was caused by a blood clot which reached his lung.

Maj. Gen. George Beach—the hospital commandant, who met Mr. Truman at the train on his arrival from Philadelphia—reported that the underlying cause was "arteriosclerosis" and "auricular fibrillation."

At Pershing's bedside were his son, Warren, his sister, Miss May Pershing, and his longtime physician, Maj. Gen. Snellie Marietta.

The American flag was dropped to half-staff throughout the capital as a grateful nation prepared to accord highest honors to one of its greatest military heroes.

In response to Pershing's long-time wish, he will be buried Monday in Arlington National Military Cemetery where lie so many of his comrades-in-arms.

But before the body is borne across the Potomac to the rolling Arlington hills, it will be taken to the Capitol to lie in state on a catafalque originally built for the remains of George Washington.

The catafalque was to have been the last resting place of the Father of His Country, but actually Washington's body was never moved from Mt. Vernon, in view of the terms of his will.

Pershing's body will lie in state in the Capitol rotunda on Sunday and on Monday morning until 12 noon, E.S.T. The public will be permitted to pass the bier from 2 p. m. until 8 p. m. Sunday and from 8 a. m. until noon Monday.

At that hour a formal procession will escort the body through the capital to the Arlington Amphitheatre—residing place of the Unknown Soldier. There services will be held at 2 p. m.

Highest Ranking Soldier

As general of the armies, Pershing was the nation's highest-ranking military man. Only one other American, George Washington, has held that title. Several other military leaders of the Civil War and World War 2 have held the title of general of the army.

All during the second World War, Pershing received a full report twice a month from General George C. Marshall, his aide of 1917. Pershing had warned that the United States might become embroiled in a second European war as early as April 1937.

At that time, he said:

"In view of world conditions today, the United States should be prepared to mobilize half a

Reds Place Burden on West Allies

Russia Refuses to Lift Blockade of Berlin; Willing to Negotiate for All Germany Might Go to U.N.

Allied Powers May Take Matter to Assembly of Nations

London, July 15 (AP)—The British Cabinet studied for nearly three hours today the Soviet refusal to lift the Berlin blockade. An atmosphere of crisis prevailed.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin emerged from the cabinet meeting at No. 10 Downing street and went directly to Buckingham Palace to report to the king.

Anxious crowds waited in the black long street outside Prime Minister Attlee's official residence.

Foreign office spokesmen would not comment on the Soviet rejection of the British, French and American notes demanding that the Russians end their ground blockade of Berlin.

Reply Is Divulged
London, July 15 (AP)—Russia has refused to lift the blockade of Berlin, placing the next move in the diplomatic duel today up to the United States, Britain and France.

The Soviets also said they were willing to negotiate with the western Allies if the talks concern the administration of all Germany and not just Berlin.

Meeting of the entire British cabinet in the next few hours was considered likely. It was understood Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and other British ministers already have discussed the situation with U. S. Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas.

It was reported in Washington and Berlin that the western powers now may take the issue to the United Nations. American quarters in Berlin expected a worsening of the crisis there.

The Russian reply to the American note of July 6 demanding that the Berlin blockade be lifted was broadcast last night by the Moscow radio several hours after it was delivered to the State Department in Washington. Similar replies also were sent to the British and French, the broadcast said.

Accusing the western Allies of destroying four-power control machinery in Germany, the Russians said the Americans, British and French had undermined the coalition basis on which rested their right to participate in the administration of Berlin.

The Russians complained of the

Viaduct Sidewalk Section Collapses

B.P.W. Will Repair Small Area; Vibrations Are Believed Cause

A section of the concrete sidewalk on the Washington avenue viaduct about three feet long and extending from the curb about two feet toward the railing fell to the ground this morning, leaving a hole through which the ground below the viaduct could be viewed.

A Board of Public Works crew was immediately dispatched and began the work of repairing the damage. According to Ernest A. Steuding, superintendent, workmen will have to clean out that section, build new forms underneath and lay in a new section of reinforced concrete.

Just before the section fell, a large piece of contracting equipment had become stuck on the viaduct, and the rear part of the equipment had to be raised before it could proceed. Patrolmen Gerald Every and Raymond Wells, who were sent to direct traffic while

Republicans Hail Act as Cheap Politics

(By The Associated Press)
President Truman's call for a special session of Congress July 26 promptly drew cries of "cheap politics" today from many Republicans of the G.O.P.-controlled House and Senate.

The split in Democratic ranks shown at the party's national convention in Philadelphia also was reflected in reaction of the minority's Congress members to their chief's back-to-work proposal. They differed as to whether it was a wise or unwise political move and as to whether good would come of it or not.

Mr. Truman announced the plan for the special session—the 26th in the history of Congress—as he accepted his party's presidential nomination at Philadelphia last night.

Consent to Erect Span Over Hudson Asked by Authority

Engineer Finds Location Suitable for Span; Crew Surveys for Approach

At a meeting of the New York State Bridge Authority held Wednesday at Catskill the authority took formal action to request a hearing before the United States War Department for consent calling for the location of a bridge across the Hudson river between Kingston and Rhinebeck.

The consent of the War Department is necessary before a structure can be erected over tidal waters such as the Hudson river. Borings have been completed to test the substructure at several locations along the river where the bridge might be located.

The consulting engineer has recommended to the Authority a location for the proposed bridge and it now becomes necessary to make application to the War Department for a hearing and a request for approval of a location.

It is reported that a most satisfactory location for a bridge has been found as a result of test borings and that the consulting engineer has made a recommendation to the Authority as to a proposed site. However this location is subject to approval of the War Department.

Pershing Chose Grave

Washington, July 15 (AP)—Some years ago General John J. Pershing indicated across the Potomac to Arlington National Cemetery and selected his own grave site. It was in the midst of the World War I section. He was accompanied by Maj. Gen. John L. Dowitt, then the army's quartermaster general, who quoted Pershing as saying: "Here let me rest among the World War veterans. When the last bugle call is sounded, I want to stand up with

Governor Dewey Will Have Headquarters in Washington

New York, July 15 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will establish his presidential campaign headquarters in Washington, D.C., probably next week.

The Republican standard bearer announced this last night after discussing campaign organization plans with Herbert Brownell, Jr., his campaign manager.

Dewey was understood to have warned against any overconfidence in Republican ranks. The governor has no immediate comment on the nomination of President Truman as his Democratic opponent.

This is the first time since 1932,

Roe Accuses State's Democratic Leader of Unfair Tactics in Voting

O'Dwyer Parades

Manhattan Mayor Joins in Demonstration on Convention Floor

President Truman's fighting acceptance speech early today won enthusiastic approval from the New Yorkers.

The state leadership strongly endorsed the President's decision to call Congress back. Paul E. Fitzpatrick, state chairman, had suggested this at a news conference early in the convention, stressing the two issues Mr. Truman cited—inflation and housing.

On the presidential roll call last night, New York at first gave 15 votes to certainly one of the "darkest horses" ever to receive a ballot at a national convention—James A. Roe, the Queens leader in New York City.

Roe quickly withdrew before the tally was announced so that the state officially recorded all of its 98 votes for Mr. Truman.

An observer commented that "that must have been the shortest campaign for President in history."

The strange vote was the outcome of a squabble last night in the delegation and then of a deal worked out on the steaming convention floor.

Roe was a pre-convention supporter of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and came here proclaiming that the eight and one-half Queens votes never would be cast for Mr. Truman.

Couldn't Change Roe
The state leaders succeeded in winning over the President a few scattered dissenters in the delegation, but they could not change Roe's mind. His stand was believed to be based as much on local New York City issues as on support for Eisenhower.

At a delegation caucus during the recess before the nominations last night, it was agreed that all New York votes would be cast for the Truman-Barkley ticket except for those delegates who notified the delegation chairman otherwise.

Roe was not present and he accused Fitzpatrick in a hotel lobby immediately afterwards of using unfair tactics and trying to "railroad" through a unanimous vote for Mr. Truman.

The Queens leader then told newsmen he would demand a time-consuming floor poll of the 106-member delegation and said the votes of his borough's delegates would be cast for him for president.

He was joined by one other delegate, Robert H. Hurston of Melville, N. Y., Suffolk county chairman, who said he originally was an Eisenhower man and would vote for Roe.

Fitzpatrick denied Roe's charge that the caucus was kept secret from many of the delegates and said he believed the procedure agreed upon was entirely fair to all.

Temper cooled a bit in the stifling heat at Convention Hall. Roe finally agreed not to demand a floor poll in return for the 15 votes, an arbitrarily selected figure. As part of the bargain, he turned the votes over to Mr. Truman before the final count.

B.P.W. Employees To Finish Street

Broadway From Chestnut to Rogers Streets Is to Be Surfaced

Preliminary work on the reconstruction of Broadway between Chestnut and Rogers streets has been started by Board of Public Works employees and the laying of the first of two courses of asphaltic concrete surface on that stretch is expected to be begun Monday, Superintendent Ernest A. Steuding said today.

Present plans call for the laying of the new surface one lane at a time, thus permitting traffic to continue on Broadway during the project.

When completed, the entire length of Broadway will have been reconstructed with the exception of that portion between Cornell and Grand streets, which is being held up pending the projected elimination of the Broadway crossing of the West Shore railroad tracks, Steuding said.

In 1945 Broadway was reconstructed from Albany avenue to Foxhall avenue, and in 1947 the work was completed from Foxhall avenue to Chestnut street and from Rogers street to Ferry street, excepting that portion on either side of the railroad crossing.

The street between Chestnut and Rogers streets was not done at that time because a new sewer was being installed in the vicinity Continued on Page Eighteen

No Majority, So Saugerties Has No School Trustees

Two candidates sponsored by the Saugerties Taxpayers' Association and one independent candidate polled the greater number of votes for school trustees at the annual election of Union Free School District No. 10, Saugerties, last evening. However, since none of the candidates received a majority of the total vote cast the election was declared a "dead-lock" and none of the seven candidates in the field was declared elected.

What the next step will be depends on legal advice but it was reported today that representatives of the Taxpayers' Association would go to Albany and seek a ruling from the State Department in which they will seek to have the three candidates receiving the larger number of votes declared elected.

Following a heated meeting Tuesday evening at which seven persons were nominated for trustee, the election was held Thursday from 12 noon until 8 p. m. at the high school. There were 768 votes cast, and it was necessary to have 385 votes to elect by a majority.

The vote cast resulted as follows: Mrs. Elizabeth Overbargh, 381; Mrs. Agnes K. Schroeder, 369; Dr. Lester A. Sonking, 345; John T. Washburn, 314; Joseph W. Frankel, 309; Terry Staples, 267; Violet Martin, 233.

Mrs. Overbargh and Dr. Sonking were taxpayers' candidates and Mrs. Schroeder was nominated as an independent. The other three candidates are presently members of the board.

Strike Seems Ended as Workers Go Back to Jobs in Italy

Rome, July 15 (AP)—The government said today a "back to work movement" is cracking the general strike clamped on Italy by Communist labor after the attempted assassination of Palmiro Togliatti.

Togliatti, Italy's No. 1 Communist who also stands ace high with the Soviet Union, was reported improving. A Sicilian law student shot him three times outside the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

In addition to the paralyzing general strike, the shooting touched off violence which claimed the lives of six persons and injured hundreds more. Disturbances continued today but on a lesser scale than yesterday.

The Interior Ministry headed by Mario Scelba said Italian workers were beginning to return to their jobs at several places.

This was regarded as certain to stiffen resistance by Premier Alcide De Gasperi to reported demands from the Communist-led General Labor Confederation (C.G.I.L.) for Scelba's resignation as the price for ending the strike.

The small Liberal party, aligned with De Gasperi's Christian Democrats in the government, assailed the strike as "openly revolutionary in character."

The Interior Ministry communiqué described the situation in Italy as "everywhere normal." It said Sicilian railways were operating again, volunteers were manning express bus out of Naples, government offices operating regularly and that there was "partial restoration" of activity in many cities.

Press dispatches told only of disorders at Milan and Turin—Communist strongholds—to match those which swept Italy yesterday and last night.

In Milan police reserves fired shots in the air and used tear gas to subdue thousands of workers gathered around the strike-bound Motto Food Products factory. The police forced the workers to renege 12 rifles seized from plant guards.

Spurred by Communist attacks on the government a crowd at Turin tried to sack the Christian Democrat newspaper office. Police stopped them.

In Rome, Naples and other Communist crowds listened to vitriolic attacks on the De Gasperi regime. They blamed the government for the attack on Togliatti. In Rome Luigi Longo, the man who would likely succeed Togliatti in the event of the latter's death, said the Christian Democrats had no right to keep the Communists out of the government.

A Stalin message broadcast from Moscow said the Soviet Communist Party was "outraged" by the shooting and expressed regret that Togliatti's friends were unable to protect him from "the foul underhand attack."

Giuseppe Di Vittorio, Communist boss of the Cgil, bitterly accused the government of being an accomplice to the Togliatti shooting. Christian Democrat senators denied the accusation.

Di Vittorio and Renato Bitesse, another Communist Cgil leader, met with De Gasperi after the morning Parliamentary session. Earlier they conferred with President Luigi Einaudi.

The latest bulletin on the 55-year-old Togliatti said he spent a quiet night.

Situation Is Same as Year 1860

President's Acceptance Is Challenge to South, Republicans Alike

Action Is Desired

Truman Would Get Legislation on Civil Rights

Philadelphia, July 15 (AP)—Some but not all of the rebel southern Democrats slumped down at their national party's convention packed off for Birmingham today—there to name a states' rights candidate for president and write a states' rights platform.

Thus history seemed to be flashing back 88 years to another bitter party split over the race issue, a split that put Abraham Lincoln into the White House as the nation's first Republican president.

But in a pre-dawn challenge to his Dixie and G.O.P. foes alike President Truman raised the civil rights issue high into the pre-election campaign.

The Chief Executive climaxed his acceptance of the presidential nomination with a call for Congress to reassemble 11 days hence—to act, among other things, on his and Republican calls for greater civil rights for Negroes and other minority groups.

Mr. Truman has asked for federal anti-lynch, anti-poll tax, anti-Jim Crow and anti-job discrimination laws.

It was the Democratic Convention's action in writing those specific proposals into the party's 1948 platform that brought the call for Saturday's rebel conference in Birmingham.

Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi formally announced the convention call for the Alabama city.

His action came swiftly after the full Mississippi delegation and half of Alabama's 26 delegates strode out of the steaming convention hall last night to protest a double defeat over the platform.

First the convention turned down by a 925 to 309 vote, Dixie's own states' rights plank which would have pledged the party to leave the problem of civil rights to each state.

Then, by a 651½ to 582½ vote, the delegates wrote their complete rejection of Mr. Truman's own program into the platform that had been the subject of a week-long fight.

The deep south and Texas got very few votes from beyond their borders.

Race Plank Text
The race plank that caused the walkout and the formal call for the Birmingham meeting reads:

"The Democratic party is responsible for the great civil rights gains made in recent years in eliminating unfair and illegal discrimination based on race, creed or color."

"The Democratic party commits itself to continuing its efforts to eradicate all racial, religious and economic discrimination."

"We again state our belief that racial and religious minorities must have the right to live, the right to work, the right to vote, the full and equal protection of the law."

June Price Cited

Dairymen Will Receive $4.76, 12 Cents Above May

New York, July 15 (AP)—A uniform June milk price of $4.76 per hundredweight (about 47 quarts) for dairy farmers in the six-state milk-shed area was announced yesterday by C. J. Blanford, New York milk marketing area administrator.

The butterfat premium was set at 7.4 cents for each tenth of a pound of fat above or below the 3.5 per cent standard. The May uniform prices was $4.61.

Blanford said June fluid milk consumption in New York city and Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester counties, which compose the marketing area, dropped 6,514,544 pounds or 2.5 per cent from the June, 1947, figure of 260,125,815 pounds.

Nazareth Circled; Arabs Hit Hard By Jewish Armies

Both Sides Treat Truce Idea Coolly; Jews Press Hard on Enemy

Cairo, July 15 (AP)—The Jews said today Israeli troops have encircled Nazareth from three sides and struck heavy blows at Arab armies in the Jerusalem area.

Jewish sources in Haifa said Israeli units now were within striking distance of Nazareth, main northern Palestine base of Fawzi Pasha Al Kaukji's irregular Arab Volunteer Army.

A dispatch from Jewish-held modern Jerusalem said Israeli forces struck triple hammer blows at Arab armies around the Holy City in the 12 hours ended at noon yesterday.

A later report from the Arab-controlled old city said the Arab Legion and tribal pillbox of Trans-Jordan had started a fight for Mount Zion south of the walls, Jewish positions on the Mount threaten the Arab left flank.

Both the Jews and Arabs seemed cool to the idea of a new United Nations truce in their Palestine War.

The U.N. Security Council meets at Lake Success, N. Y., today to take up a United States proposal for a new Palestine cease-fire within three days. The American delegation is hopeful of approval.

A high Israeli army officer in Jerusalem asked: "What do we want with a truce?" an unofficial Jewish spokesman said: "We will accept any truce, of course, but we are disappointed at the prospects of a United Nations truce coming to the aid of the Arab just when we are beginning to get results from our offensives."

Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary-general of the Arab League, said here the Arab continued on Page Twenty-eight

Pay Ruled Okay

Appellate Division Says Macy's Has Right to Give Bonus

New York, July 15 (AP)—The Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court ruled yesterday that the R. H. Macy and Company department store has a right to pay triple wages to a group of employees who crossed picket lines and worked during a drivers' strike in 1948.

The court denied a motion by the State Labor Relations Board seeking to restrain Macy's from paying $23,994 in bonuses to about 3,000 workers.

The payments will begin as soon as possible, counsel for the store announced.

The board, contending the bonus payments would be in violation of the state labor law, had refused the store permission to make them.

Two Autos Collide

Two automobiles were slightly damaged when they collided on Albany avenue in front of the Masonic lodge about 6:45 p. m. Wednesday, the police reported. According to Patrolmen Earl Schoonmaker and James Burns, who investigated, William Eddus of Staten Island was pulling out of a parking space and heading north on Albany avenue when his automobile was in collision with another operated by Louis A. Cockburn of Mount Pleasant, who was also going north. The front bumper of the Eddus car and the left rear fender of the Cockburn car were damaged, but no one was injured, according to the police report.

Woman Is Killed

New York, July 15 (AP)—Mrs. Mary Silva, 68, of 1716 Van Buren street, the Bronx, was fatally injured last night when she was struck by a bus as she walked across Boston Road at Dyer avenue, the Bronx. David Connelly, of 2005 Gleason avenue, the Bronx, who operated the bus for the Fordham Transportation Company, was not held by police. Police said Mrs. Silva walked in front of the bus and attempted to retreat as Connelly applied the brakes and swerved to one side.

It Couldn't Happen, but It Did

The chances were decidedly against a shiny new 1948 car crashing into a dusty old 1893 cabriolet, but crash they did. It happened in New York, where the ancient horse-drawn vehicle carries passengers around Central Park. The car, which had been stolen, slammed into the cabriolet, but no one was injured.

Physicians Found Guilty of Abortion In Death of Girl

Glasberg Is Found Dead in Prison Cell as Aftermath of Conviction

New York, July 15 (AP)—Dr. Oswald Glasberg, one of two doctors convicted last night of abortion and first degree manslaughter, was found dead today in his prison cell.

Commissioner of Correction Albert O. Williams said death was believed due to poisoning.

Dr. Glasberg and Dr. Paul Singer of Jersey City, N. J., were convicted in the death of Jane Ward, 22-year-old baking company heiress.

After their conviction last night they were taken to the city prison to await sentencing on August 26. A maximum term of 20 years could be imposed.

A General Sessions court jury of 11 men and one woman deliberated nine hours in reaching its verdict.

As it was announced, Dr. Singer swooned and seemed about to fall. An attendant hurried to his side, and helped him into a chair. Dr. Glasberg showed no emotion.

The wives of both defendants had left the court room before the verdict was announced.

The trial was the third for the two doctors, accused of pervering a fatal criminal abortion on Miss Ward last October.

Miss Ward, daughter of Ralph D. Ward, president of Drake Bakeries, Inc., died October 27. The abortion was performed October 17, the prosecution said.

The first jury in the case was dismissed after a mistrial last January 28 when a juror fainted while hearing the autopsy on Miss Ward described.

The second trial ended when the jury was unable to reach a decision.

The doctors based their defense on assertions that they operated on Miss Ward in an effort to save her life after they found she had undergone an abortion earlier.

Dr. Singer, whose home is at 101 Tompkins avenue, Jersey City, N. J., is a gynecologist with offices at 944 Park avenue, New York. Dr. Glasberg, who lives at 61 East 66th street, New York, is a plastic surgeon with offices at 115 East 72nd street.

Discussing the verdict, Judge Francis L. Valente told the jury: "I feel it was warranted by the evidence, but I'm somewhat shaken by it. It must have taken a lot of courage and conviction on your part to have voted as you did. It was a distasteful verdict, but because it was unwarranted, I would have voted the same way if I had been in your position."

Both prisoners, who had been free in bail of $7,500 each, were remanded to prison after Assistant District Attorney Anthony Liebler reminded the court of testimony that Dr. Singer had threatened to kill himself if convicted.

A third physician, Dr. Alejandro Ovalle, is under indictment in the same case. He was granted a separate trial, and testified for the prosecution.

CLEAN REST ROOMS

The great oil companies have for some years accustomed the traveling public to find rest rooms along with gas pumps. People expect such conveniences as they expect to have their windshields wiped off and their radiators looked after. But a good many travelers report that whereas the quality of service for the car has grown steadily better, the condition of the rest rooms grows steadily worse. Perhaps because such conveniences are a gift to the public, for which no payment is required, and which are supposed to advertise the station whose gas and oil are for sale, the sanitary authorities of most communities seem to give them no attention.

One woman who has reached a degree of age and experience where she is no longer embarrassed by small matters of human nature, remarked to a station attendant assiduously wiping her windshield as she returned to her car:

"Young man, if you would give five minutes attention to the ladies' room, it would give your customers a more favorable view of your company."

"Honest, Mrs., I cleaned that damned room thoroughly twice today and I bet I did it six times yesterday. The way people will let their kids mess things up! Why don't they teach 'em some manners and decency? After all, I'm a garage man, not a nursemaid!"

To this the woman had no reply. She never left such a place herself without wiping the washstand with a damp paper towel and in general leaving the place as she would like to find it.

There are two sides to this matter. If an oil company is going to extend such service, let it do it right. But on the other hand, if travelers expect to find such places clean, they should do their part to keep them so.

Have you a CP in your office? The letters stand for "certified professional secretary", a distinction not yet awarded but in the air. The National Secretaries Association, whose president is Miss Irene Gadelman of Tulsa, Okla., is trying to get such a grade created. Their model is the CPA, or certified public accountant, a title which every accountant would like to attain.

SUSPICIOUS FRENCH

Observers of French reaction to the economic agreement between their country and the United States report that most town and city dwellers understand and approve of the measure, but that the rural population, which runs to 60 per cent of the whole, looks at it from the Russian viewpoint as an instrument of "American imperialism."

This viewpoint is a direct result of Communist propaganda, which is relayed to the farmers by radio. An hour or so at mid-day marks the extent of the rural Frenchman's radio listening, and Russian broadcasts take full advantage of this hour. The United States propagandists have lagged in this matter, believing, perhaps mistakenly, that help given to a needy friend is bound to be appreciated on its merits.

Some believe Americans think too well of human nature. Communist propaganda consistently plays to the lower nature of its listeners, arousing hatred, suspicion, and belligerence. Without fighting fire with fire, America needs to make contact with the minds of the Frenchmen, in order to win their comprehension of American motives, and perhaps, eventually, their appreciation of the results.

One out of every four American families is spending more than it makes, say the analysts of the Federal Reserve Board. Any suggestions?

OLYMPIC RUNNERS

The inability of Gil Dodds to compete in final tryouts for the Olympic track team means that the United States squad will be minus one of the country's most colorful runners when it goes to London this summer.

'These Days'

THE BLOODY SHIRT

For much of its history, the Republican Party waved the "Bloody Shirt" as it was called. The Civil War was a campaign issue even as late as William McKinley and the ghost of Abraham Lincoln rode the hustings even more recently. Petty men were nominated for high office on the assumption that Lincoln would see them through and important issues were delayed by oratory unrelated to anything that was of recent occurrence.

The harm done to the United States is today fully calculable, for history is often slow in catching up with the stupidities of politicians. The Solid South is a Republican invention, for had that party not used the "Bloody Shirt" device to keep itself in power, the South would not have been forced to meet that challenge by reducing itself to a one party area. The insinuation of racism in both South and North and its application not only to negroes but to aliens of various types, even to the third and fourth generation, is a direct result of the desire and need for political expression of a people, who, having been defeated in war, found themselves powerless for half a century. The South came into its own only with Woodrow Wilson.

Now the Democrats are repeating this performance. They are raising the ghost of Franklin D. Roosevelt to run against Tom Dewey. They hope to bury Harry Truman in Rooseveltian ecstasies, so that the voter will not know the present but believe in the past. In China, I witnessed a similar spectacle after Sun Yat-sen died. Living, he was forced to take refuge in a foreign concession, and was ridiculed and abused and his small following was without position. But after his death, he was elevated to the position of a god. A huge tomb was erected in his honor, before which men and women genuflected, and in every room of every school and office and many homes, a portrait of Sun was hung as though it were an ikon. The Russian did the same symbolic job on the dead Lenin.

Maybe it is good politics, but it is bad patriotism. Roosevelt was a controversial personality, deeply adored by many, equally hated by others. His close colleagues, Harry Hopkins, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Cordell Hull, Henry Stimson, Jim Farley have described him in their memoirs as a man capable of great untruths, of petty lying and joyful trickery. Some of his friends, who so describe him, do it with admiration, setting themselves up as protagonists of the lie as a weapon of party politics.

At any rate, if the ghost of Roosevelt is to be the candidate, we shall have to discuss closed issues with all the hatred they invoked at the time that they were living causes. We should have to discuss, for instance, in detail Teheran and Yalta as though something could be done about them and as though they were subjects for others than the historian and the moralist who are shocked by the deceptions of our President.

But what we need to do in this campaign is to go forward from where we are. The principal problem facing the American people is the conduct of our foreign policy which places upon the American taxpayer an unbearable burden; which is altering the character of our economy, keeping the government in the production and distribution of goods and placing undue limitations upon private enterprise; which forces us to maintain a peace-time armament program on a rising war-time basis; which places impediments in the path of American consumption of American products, while goods are more plentifully produced than ever.

Senator McGrath in a radio interview attributed the current housing shortage to the 80th Congress. That was an intellectually dishonest statement of which the Senator should be ashamed; it is not a matter of opinion but of fact. The housing, as the automobile, the refrigerator and other shortages due to the excessive export of essential commodities during and since the war, resulting in an out-of-price range and lacks in this country. That needs to be discussed, too. And we shall have such a debate if the ghosts of Lincoln and Roosevelt are permitted to remain quiescent.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

INSULIN SHOCK HELPS MENTAL PATIENTS

In 1935 Dr. Sakel, a European physician, began using insulin in the treatment of mental disturbances.

The insulin caused what is known as "insulin shock." When the shock passed away, the patients were brighter mentally; and, after a number of shocks, many were restored to normal. Following insulin, metaxal was used to shock mental patients. Finally, the electric-shock method was discovered and is perhaps the most popular method at present.

As the shock method sometimes causes injury to bones and joints, and as some of these cases of mental disturbance are not so serious as to make it unsafe for the individual to live at home, methods of giving modified or mild shock by use of insulin is meeting with much success.

In the "Canadian Medical Association Journal," M. Carnat, M.D., F. J. Edwards, M.D., and Elizabeth I. Fletcher, B.A., Psychologist, Calgary, Alberta, describe their treatment of mental patients by giving just enough insulin to cause "near" shock.

After a complete physical and mental examination, the patients were placed in small wards of six to reduce noise and disturbances. They were advised to have only a light lunch during the evening with no sugar or candy, and not to eat after 10 p. m. At 7:30 a. m. they were given an injection of ordinary (crystalline zinc) insulin commencing at 10 units and increasing 10 units per day until the desired effect was obtained.

The largest dose used varied from 60 to 100 units, usually 80 to 90. The treatment was completed at 10 a. m. by giving the patient a glass of fruit juice with added glucose (sugar). This was followed by a heavy breakfast of cereal with sugar and cream, eggs, bacon, toast, jam, coffee, milk.

The patient began to relax and sleep during the hours of treatment. Just enough insulin was given to produce a reaction just short of deep sleep.

The treatment was given six days a week with Sunday for rest. The entire treatment lasted from three to four weeks.

It is believed that the satisfactory results obtained by this modified or mild insulin treatment are because the sugar in the blood is reduced in amount.

counted on heavily to help the American running squad stand up against the stiff competition expected.

But the American team will not be weak. Some of the runs made in the tryouts, particularly for the shorter distances, have been good. In that field the United States team still has Mel Patton, of California, who has come within a tenth of a second of equalling the world record for the 100-yard dash.

Temporary Substitute for the Emblem of Liberty

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Philadelphia. — Thoughts on watching a Democratic Convention—The Exorcist girl in the store window on Chestnut street is still peddling her exercise machine up and down. She's been doing it ever since the Republican Convention and she doesn't get tired. . . . Sam Rayburn, Senator Barkley et al are still extolling the virtues of Franklin D. Roosevelt. The Exorcist girl is mechanized, but Rayburn, Barkley et al aren't. However, they don't get tired either. . . . Roosevelt is gone now. It's the first convention without him in 16 years, but they keep talking about him. . . . Talking but not necessarily doing. . . . Truman talks about him, but fires most of the old Roosevelt team. . . . Oscar Ewing talks about him, Congressman Mike Keown talks about him. But the real fact is that, despite the talk, the Roosevelt family isn't in tune with Truman and never will be. Jimmy Roosevelt did his best for Eisenhower. So did Elliot, and for a time, so did Franklin. . . . Mrs. Roosevelt is sour on Truman, but has been too polite to say so. . . . In brief, this is the end—the end of the Roosevelt era, the winning era for the Democrats. They still make speeches about him, and in their hearts they know they can't win without him.

Eisenhower's old mess sergeant, Marty Snyder, out in front of the Bellevue-Stratford yelling for his hero. His sound truck could be heard a block away. Sounded like the sound truck that kept parading the streets of Philadelphia for Bob Taft—right up to the last Republican ballot. Democratic Conventions are usually more fun than Republican. They shout more, thump you on the back harder, sing louder. You notice it then they sing The Star-Spangled Banner. The Republicans move their lips. The Democrats fill up their chests and put some oomph in it. Finally, the Dems fight more. In other words, they're individualists—hard-singing, hard-drinking, hard-fighting individualists. And it takes a big man, a tough man, to ride herd on them.

Contrasts between 1944 and 1948—Most famous phrase of the 1944 campaign was "Clear it with Sidney," which made Jimmy Byrnes so boiling mad. The phrase came from Roosevelt's alleged remark when Jimmy wanted to be vice-presidential running mate and F.D.R. is supposed to have advised him to clear it with Sidney Hillman, then head of the C.I.O., P.A.C.—Byrnes didn't clear it, and was not nominated, which was a tragedy because the country would have been immeasurably better off. . . . Today Jimmy is down in South Carolina, where he has a new farm with a lot of trees to clear away; Sidney Hillman is dead; and labor, which once played such a role at Democratic Conventions, doesn't seem to be around any more. . . . Phil Murray is sitting it out at Pittsburgh, apparently waiting for divine guidance. Dan Tobin, who for years helped write Democratic platforms, this year refused to be a delegate. . . . Long-range observers around the Convention lobbies will tell you that labor has a lot to learn when it comes to politics. No man ever went down the line harder for labor than Sen. Claude Pepper of Florida, yet the C.I.O. sat on the sidelines listlessly watching his campaign. . . . Other Senators may remember that listlessness next time labor needs a friend on the Senate floor.

There's Chip Robert of Georgia over there in the lobby of the Warwick Hotel, just back from Singapore from where he ate—expressed a snake to his wife Evie. Evie used to fancy herself a snake-charmer. Now she charms Democrats. By the time the snake arrived in Washington, however, and had a chance to be charmed by Evie it was almost dead. Air-sickness. . . . Says Chip: "If you have any dangerous snakes around give 'em an airplane ride. It's the best way to kill them." . . . Chip looks healthier now that he doesn't have to raise money for the Democrats. (He used to be Democratic treasurer.) So does George Kilgus, who succeeded him. George is now head of the American President Steamship Lines and says there's nothing like a sea nurse for the Pacific for a summer's vacation. . . . Money raising for the coming Truman campaign is going to be tough. Mrs. Perle Mesta, the Oklahoma oil heiress who throws those big parties for the Truman's, is counted on for a big slice of dough. So are Secretary of Defense Forrester and Ambassador Averell Harriman. They're supposed to ante up half a million, and if they don't come through it'll be bad, for almost nobody else will.

Everybody loves Senator "Dear Alben" Barkley—except Harry Truman. And it's mutual. The White House let it be known it wasn't enthusiastic about a 70-year old man as running mate and, naturally, when this got back to Alben, he was miffed. . . . By this time, however, the press already had his keynote speech praising Truman so he had to go through with it. . . . Most vigorous opponents of able Senator Joe O'Mahoney to be Vice President were Ed Flynn and Howard McGrath, his co-religionists on the Democratic National Committee. If a Catholic runs and gets defeated, they argue, it will be difficult to get another Catholic nominated for years. . . . No one really wanted to run with Truman. . . . Clark Clifford and Tommy Corcoran got the blame for tipping off Mr. T. that Justice Douglas would make the V-P spot, which was why Mr. T. called Douglas direct—all to no avail.

The headlines from Berlin are nearly shoved off the first page by convention news. . . . That mess sergeant of Ike's out in the street talking about the importance of leadership. He's so right. And the big crowds around him daily, listening to his just a mess sergeant—with brass lungs. But he makes sense. . . . Eisenhower urged Congress to pass the draft act—first peacetime draft in history—partly because of the psychological effect on Russia. The Russians respect force. . . . Equally important is the psychological effect on Russia of strong leadership. Eisenhower is a strong leader. So says Ike's ex-mess sergeant. . . . The folks in the street listen. Once a Democratic bigwig tried to chase him off, but Sergeant Snyder was too smart. He flashed a police permit.

The late beloved Joseph Daniels was so right. It takes a big leader, a great man to weld together the heterogeneous, warring factions of the Democratic party. They're too individualist, in many respects so American. They're far too happy scrapping. . . . Also, of course, some of them have got old and fat and complacent. No longer are they the young, vigorous, fighting party of Franklin Roosevelt. . . . The days when new, fresh, invigorating youngsters would come to Washington and work almost for nothing just for the joy of helping their country are over. . . . Yet that doesn't detract from the great job they once did. The Republicans can bow their heads off about the New Deal, but they'll never dare repeat the New Deal laws—the S.E.C., Social Security, R.E.A., old-age pensions, soil erosion, support for farm prices. . . . These were days of never-ending battling for the underdog. . . . The Democratic party today is still the champion of the underdog—only some of them are now so tired, so uninspired, so old. . . . And it takes brass-lunged youngsters like Monty Snyder, the ex-mess sergeant, to keep reminding them that what this country needs is leadership. And I hope he keeps on telling them.

Today at Convention

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Philadelphia, July 15—This may well go down in history as the "upside" convention of all times.

The man nominated for vice president was really the man the Democratic national convention might have nominated for President if it had been free to do so.

Before the convention met a substantial number of northern and southern Democrats were united in demanding the withdrawal of President Truman and the nomination of General Eisenhower. This was a direct slap at the man subsequently named for President. The northern Democrats then administered a slap at the southern Democrats by adopting the civil rights program of the very man most of the delegates had sought to ditch.

By ignoring the warnings of the south, the northern states insisted on a civil rights plank that may cost the regular Democratic nominee upwards of 100 votes in the Electoral College.

Rarely ever in the records of political conventions has a national convention acted with such utter disregard of party harmony.

With a slap in the face led by Henry Wallace the man who was defeated for the vice presidency in the 1944 Democratic national convention, and a split now in the south, the selection of Truman was accomplished only by the federal steam roller—the influence of federal officeholders and the effectiveness of federal troops.

Almost any president can force his own renomination when a convention requires only a majority vote. Usually this has been a flagrant misuse of power by the Republicans. Only the federal power enabled Harry Truman, a Democratic president, to win the nomination to succeed himself. Even the big political bosses capitulated and Mr. Truman now has the nomination that may well prove worthless by next November. It was the abolition of the two thirds rule in 1936 which saved the day for Mr. Truman this time.

A one-third bloc could have insured his defeat. The votes for Senator Russell plus those from a few pivotal states would have eliminated Mr. Truman.

"The odd part of it all is that the tragedy enacted here was both avoidable and needless. If the administration had kept its promise to the southern senators to use its influence to secure the adoption of the 1944 platform plank on civil rights, there would have been no walkout of Alabama and Mississippi and no rebellion.

If the President had not allowed personal ambition to rule his thoughts and had refused to permit a manipulated nomination, someone else more acceptable to the party would have been nominated. Then the delegates here really would have had the change they wanted.

On top of it all, the President has tried a grand stand play. His speech to the convention was a fighting speech in the political sense and the delegates applauded the aggressiveness of it.

The real test of Congress in special session will not help Mr. Truman's chances. The Republicans are in control of both Houses. They can pass legislation that Mr. Truman will have to veto. They can start another row on the civil rights issue, and a filibuster from the South will prevent the whole session null and void.

Mr. Truman asked specifically for the enactment of the civil rights program. The Republicans can take it up first—and that could be the beginning and end of the special session. The President's criticisms of Congress on housing and education legislation have been shared by many Republicans. If the legislation is passed, it probably will be credited to the Republicans, who are in majority control. It does look as if the campaign isn't going to be dull after all.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Philadelphia, July 12 — The Hari-Kiri convention of the Democratic party proceeds in an atmosphere of oriental ceremony with the priests and nobles of weird consistory all bowing in lavish etiquette, impatient for the final rite. The surveys telegraphed from here describing the fatal gala in purple hues of spiritual depression are unreliable and should be ignored. There is an exalted fanaticism in the conduct of Frank Hague, of New Jersey, for example, which suggests the illicit rapture of a blue ridge parson inviting a copperhead to hang him and the state police to impair his religious freedom. Mr. Hague turned against President Truman in a heresy that made Jim Farley blink his eyes and murmur piously. But Mr. Hague was enjoying political freedom for the first time since 1932. If it pleased him to make certainly more in revenge against the Hyde Park haunt, who had any right to say that he was sad about it? On the contrary, he was erect and truculent as of old and probably never had felt happier since 1933.

Hague and Ed Kelly, of Chicago, plainly are what they are, bosses of urban machines often described as sordid by Boston and Harvard hacks from Harvard and the Kremlin. But he never failed to call on them for pluralities, nor failed they ever to deliver. On one occasion he made them both drop everything and take themselves to Hyde Park where he rubbed their noses. In remuneration he seeing them obscurely but with monitors to check their presence while the library in his honor was consecrated to this living model for the pure in heart.

Let Farley enjoy the disaster however he might. Hague and Kelly were having one last fling as bosses, mocking the wrecked little fellow who had had the misfortune to inherit the regime and the blame, and plucking bricks from the ruins to throw at the New Dealers.

Mr. Farley sat in 701 in the Bellevue-Stratford, a corner room, his nude scalp gleaming, and it would be a presumption to say that he was not a thing. He had seen this coming a long time and the wreck of the Roosevelt machine which Jim had built and had-oiled and tended with such pride for the first eight years was too plain to be denied. Thus his knack of prophecy was indicated again, and furthermore it was a matter for rejoicing that he was a matter for rejoicing that the Roosevelt boys and their mother, Harold Ickes, Leon Henderson, Wilson Wyatt, Chester Bowles and, above all, Henry Wallace, would now be buried in the same wreck with the just.

Laurence Steinhardt, the moving ambassador just home from the seamy side of the iron curtain and weary from forty hours of travel, called on Mr. Farley, who may have been depressed by other matters than the shabby carnival in Philadelphia. He had gone far and seen many horrors done by the breed whom he had had hailed as brothers in democracy and peacefulness. Mr. Farley seemed to be playing out his hand according to the conventional idea of political regularity. He did not criticize brother Hague aloud, but what else was implied by his own decision to stick to the party's President in a hopeless year?

Even in the city of New York, the Democrats were at one another as savagely as any Republican could wish. It was a riot, a magnificent disruption, and only now, at long last, were the regulars and interlopers mutually free to rejoice in hateful contemplation of the anguish of unwary comrades. It had been an unnatural and indecent cohabitation and bound to end in public scenes some day.

It is a note of rebuttal to the state of the gloomy Congress to say that John O'Donnell, the Washington journalist of The New York News, long ill and puny, had shucked twenty years and gained ten pounds in a week and was rejoicing all over the Bellevue mezzanine. Roosevelt had done him particular dirt on several occasions. He intervened in a court litigation once to do Mr. O'Donnell out of justice and again he placed in the hand of an unsuspecting colleague of O'Donnell, at the close of a press conference, a German Iron Cross, requesting him to hand it to O'Donnell. So Mr. O'Donnell has hated Roosevelt and his memory with a glorious and ever-mounting fervor, and when he was spared to see the whole disaster, this one man's joy alone was enough to redeem the week, if that were needed.

The Rebels from the Deep South yipped and shook rancid showers from their brows and locks as they damned Mr. Truman's civil rights program. But all they could do by way of protest and defense of the sacred rights of the several states and the aloofness of the southern whites was to nail down Mr. Truman's defeat in November.

That meant, of course, the election of Tom Dewey. But Mr. Dewey's hostility to the ancient privacy was guaranteed by colored folks down south, was even more wicked than Truman's. The only escape thereafter would be a policy of non-enforcement like that which made prohibition downright pleasant and often profitable. It were better than that a Republican should take the blame for such monstrous evasion of a painful issue. Of a naturally quiescent nature, the deep south rebels seemed to be having a wonderful time in their own wild way.

The attendance was distinctly off by contrast with the Republican reunion three weeks earlier, notwithstanding the Democrats' habit of passing one vote into compound fractions to accommodate more of them on the convention floor. Perhaps there were fewer lobbyists around, a knowing breed who realize that their business will have to be done with Republicans in the coming years. Anyway, rooms were to be had by Monday night and the waiters in the great hotels, some recruited from garbage cans and from hobo jungles under the viaducts, were standing around scratching themselves in quiet scenes of grandeur.

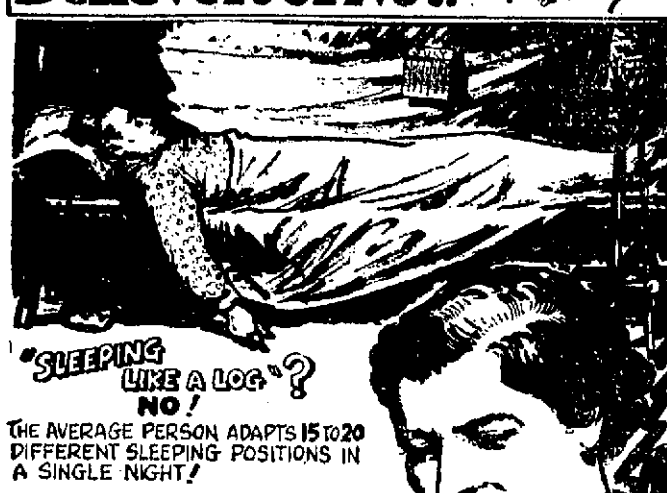

The conduct of the Democratic Platform Committee, in selecting a special few to compose the holy charter and of hiding them away to do it in stealth and caused some rancor. One statesman from New York invoked the great spirit of the vanished leader to rebuke such perfidy. He was anxious lest the American voters be denied a chance to vote for a party pledged to underwrite the economic and military security of the new state of Israel.

On this point, Mr. Farley, who had taken no part in the worry over the platform, put in for a plank promising an end to the partition of Ireland and, with a bow to Harlem, of Haiti and San Domingo.

As Senator Barkley brayed on and on in his review of the sordid past of the Republicans, the old standard Democrats paid him the compliment of a weary silence. It was an hour of contemplation for warty veterans who had to recall how long and strenuously Barkley had worked for low pay and always questionable honors. Once, to his honor, he had lost the temper at Roosevelt when the late leader accused him and his leader.

Injured Are Improving
Copenhagen, July 15 (U)—Queen Ingrid and Princesses Margrethe and Anne Marie were reported by state hospital authorities at Soenderborg today to be progressing "satisfactorily" following their car accident yesterday. The royal patients were said to have spent a "quiet night." Royal Chaudfeur Paul Henriks was reported not to have suffered injuries of a permanent character in spite of his fractured skull. The Queen needed a few stitches in a gash below the knee. Princess Margrethe needed some in a slash below the chin. Princess Anne Marie was treated for minor bruises.

Long before construction was finished, the Leaning Tower of Pisa developed its list.

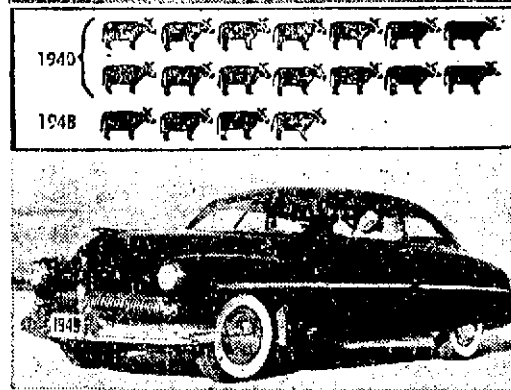

Much of Pisa, Italy, was demolished during World War II but the Leaning Tower was only slightly damaged.

High Food Prices Bring Comforts to the Farm

Symbols represent one animal or crops from one acre of grain.

(It costs the farmer more today to raise his crops and cattle, but they bring him more cash than ever. For instance, to buy a console radio-phonograph in 1940, he had to use the returns from 10 acres of corn. At today's farm prices, a four-acre crop will do the trick, as shown by symbols above. Other inserts in the Newschart contrast how much farm produce it took to buy such home improvements as washing machines, refrigerators and autos in 1940 and 1948.)

Butcher Beefs Against High Prices

"It was just ashamed to stand behind the counter and raise prices every day," said Anthony D'Amelio as he closed up his New York butcher shop. "I felt like a thief." Butcher D'Amelio, an ex-G. I., hoped his dramatic action would prompt other butchers and housewives to join in protest against skyrocketing meat prices. The signs covering the windows of his shop tell the whole story to D'Amelio's former customers.

The late John Barrymore was out walking one Easter Sunday, when he saw a certain notorious mob approaching. He tried to avoid the man, but the other singled him out with the hearty greeting: "Good afternoon, Barrymore. You are positively the only person I've met today worth stopping to speak to."

"Really?" rejoined Barrymore. "Then you're more fortunate than I am."

NEW PALTZ

New Paltz, July 13—Mrs. Melvin C. Weismiller, of Oceanside,
L. I., is spending the summer here with her daughter and son-in-law,
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tighe.

Mrs. Douglas O. Lawrence of Bluefield, W. Va., who is the former Miss Lillian Snyder of New
Paltz, has been a guest at Sunset
Inn on Upper Main street.

Mrs. W. W. Lorenzen and family have been entertaining her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George DePuy of New Jersey and Mr. and Mrs.
Dorsey Cox, also of New Jersey.
The Lorenzen family recently returned from a trip to Cape Cod where Mrs. Lorenzen's father was formerly a second mate on a whaling schooner sailing out of New Bedford, Mass.

David Polhamus and George
Dammier are driving the Walkill Valley service special buses for Truittways.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Perkins and daughter, Susan of Hawthorne, spent the holiday week-end with Mrs. Perkins' parents, Mr.
and Mrs. James O. LeFevre.

Billy Lane celebrated his birthday Tuesday with a party.

Mayor and Mrs. D. V. B. Bogert have arrived in San Francisco.

Wilbur Alsford is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Alsford on Upper Main street.

Miss Marilyn Krom celebrated her birthday Friday. Her guests were Miss Gloria Lounsbury and Mrs. LeRoy Krom from High Hills.

Roger Boyce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Boyce, has completed his enlistment in the Marines and is now at home.

The first of a weekly series of game parties began July 13 and will continue every Tuesday at St.
Joseph's Center until further notice. Games will start at 8 p. m.
Refreshments will be served. The parties will be for the benefit of St. Joseph's Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Newton Bell and three children of St. James,
L. I., are visiting their parents,
Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt C. Seward and Mr. and Mrs. William Bell.

Elton and Herbert LeFevre are at the Old Trading Post at Eagle Lake, where the Aldrichs are working for their uncle, Frank Teich, for the summer.

Huguenot Grange held its meeting July 10 in the Grange Hall.
Irving C. Barnes was in charge of the program. Miss Laura Hopkins and Mrs. Minnie Durycia were hostesses.

The C. Burden family is living temporarily with Mrs. Elton Le-Fevre in the old stone house until the new home is built.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Stanley Osborn are now residing at their home on Oakwood Terrace. Mr.
Osborn has retired this year after 30 years of active service at Skidmore where he and Mrs. Osborn were prominent both in college and civic organizations. Mr. Osborn was a member of the New Paltz Academy faculty under Dr.
Scudder in 1899 as director of athletics. He organized the first football team in New Paltz. During the winter season, he taught music.
On the advice of Dr. Scudder, he went to Italy in 1902 to study music which became his life work.

After his return to this country,
Mr. Osborn taught music in various schools in New Jersey. From the position of music director in Pittsburgh, he went to Skidmore College, Saratoga Springs, in 1918
as head of the music department.
Mrs. Osborn also is well known in New Paltz and vicinity having graduated from New Paltz Academy where she was a member of the Archduchess Society.

The annual Grange fair will be held on the lawn of Mrs. Carle DuBois' residence, corner of Prospect and Main streets, Wednesday, July 21, starting at 10 a. m. There will be fancy work and a food sale.

In case of rain, the sale will be held the following day.

Mrs. Robert Barr of Plattkill sailed July 3 from New York City for a three months visit with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Muckee in Belfast, Ireland. She expects to return September 28. Both she and Mr. Barr came to this country 25 years ago. This is her first trip to her native land.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Ean celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at a family party July 3. The party was held in the evening at the home of their son, Benjamin Ean and family, and a buffet luncheon was served with a wedding cake. Mrs. Ean wore a corsage of gardenias. The couple received many gifts, including money. Mrs. Ean, the former Miss Phoebe Ann Sutton, and Mr. Ean were married July 3, 1888 by the Rev. A. H. Huizenga, pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church of New Paltz. They were born in the town of New Paltz, and except for a brief period of nine years when
Mr. Ean was superintendent of the Lloyd Cemetery they have lived in or near the village of New Paltz all their lives. Mr. and Mrs. Ean had eight children, six of whom are still living including Mrs.
Charlita Fish of Pine Plains,
Benjamin of Eltinge Corners, Ja-
Hazel Markey, Boone, Ja.; Webster, Lloyd; Louis, Amboy, Ill., and Victor of Poughkeepsie. Mrs. Bertha Sherman, a daughter, died in 1934 and a son, Earl, died in infancy. There are nine grandchildren, Richard and Harry Sherman, Janice Fish, Donald, Marjorie and Douglas Markey, Anita Ean and Bruce, Debra and Vicki Ean. They have one great grandchild, Linda Lee Sherman.

New Vaudeville Policy Will Be Launched Here

A new summer vaudeville policy of specialty shows will be launched at Reade's Broadway Theatre on Friday and Saturday, July 16 and 17, with an "All American Girl Show" featuring five professional acts composed entirely of feminine entertainers.

This show will be followed by such features as an All Western-
Hillbilly Show, an All Harlem
Show, a Latin-American Revue, and by other specialties booked from among the leading entertainers available in the theatrical and supper club field.

These shows will be screened by the Reade organization to assure that they are suitable for the entire family, and that they equal if not surpass the quality of the vaudeville presented heretofore. One matinee and two evening shows will be continued each day, in addition to a first-run screen attraction.

Miss of ceremonies for the
"All Girl" show will be Maude

Hilton, who claims to have entertained more soldiers during the war than any other actress. A comedian, billed as the "Crown Princess of Laughter," she spent five years in the U.S.O., all overseas, and covered every theatre of operations.

She will also team with pretty
Jane Mason in a comedy act called
"A Gab Fest."

A special attraction will be Joyce Braxton, acrobatic dancer, who has been featured at New York's Latin Quarter and the Carnival Room.

Also Diane Baron, television, radio songstress, singing songs you love to hear.

Very red headed and very pretty is Lady Frances, who is also an excellent magician. Also featured will be the Anson Sisters, a duo of acrobatic and adagio dancers, in "Poetry in Motion," and "Lee Andrews," a pretty tap dancing team in "Tops in Taps."

The screen attraction will be
"My Girl Tisa", starring Lilli
Palmer and Sam Wanamaker.

State's Rights Proponents Haven't Solid Support

Atlanta, July 15 (AP)—A small band of southerners headed for Birmingham today to fight for another lost cause.

But unlike 1860, when the south first bolted the national Democratic party, these latter proponents of state's rights will not find a south solidly behind them. Lacked twice in the National Democratic Convention just ended on civil rights and President Truman's re-nomination—the Mississippi delegation and part of Alabama's left Philadelphia—held their own convention in Birmingham Saturday.

No matter which of the major parties was the November election, the south's cause is lost since they are committed to a strong civil rights platform.

Georgia's senior senator, Walter George, said he could see nothing to be gained at Birmingham. Then he commented that the pre-convention threats of a walkout had made it impossible for Truman's opposition to unite on a strong candidate.

The Democratic senator said, too, he believed Truman's call for a special session of Congress was unwise. By issuing the call, said George, the Republicans will be given an opportunity to get out of the hole by passing housing and federal aid to education legislation.

Georgia's Senator Richard Russell, who was given southern backing for the presidential nomination, said he would not permit his name to be brought before the Birmingham meeting.

The walkout by the southern record Editor Ralph McGill of the Atlanta Constitution to characterize them as "separatists."

Then McGill wrote: "The party we have known in our time died. There is developing a new party."

It will be based on strength in cities . . . The Democratic party that inevitably must develop . . . will be an urban party—one farther to the left than the one of Franklin Roosevelt.

The Atlanta Journal had praise for "the President's courage, which shone through the inter-party strife . . . It is certain to win him new friends."

"Georgia played an important and dignified part in the convention . . . our position on the so-called and, we believe, mis-called civil rights issue, was represented powerfully . . ."

Chattanooga Comment
The Chattanooga Free-Press said editorially: "This should be a day of mourning for southern Democrats. Their only consolation . . . is the grim satisfaction of knowing that President Truman and his faithful cohorts . . . are going down in ignominious defeat."

"The southern delegates were not fighting for the privilege of mistreating Negroes. They were fighting for the sacred right of self-government."

Meanwhile, plans proceeded for the Birmingham convention. Alabama's State Democratic Party Chairman Gessner T. McCortey already had named a 52-man delegation.

The city's municipal auditorium with a 6,000-seat capacity was selected as the site.

Ex-Gov. Frank M. Dixon, a member of Alabama's state's rights campaign committee, said "the national Democratic party has put a knife in the heart of the south. I urge the good Democrats of Alabama to attend . . . to register their protests and adopt plans for the future."

The call by Dixon and McCortey had already been preceded by one from Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi.

Soil Up in Air
But where that left the other southern states on the formation of a new southern party was still up in the air.

Gov. Ben Lacey of Arkansas, first considered as the South's man to oppose Truman, withdrew his name from the presidential race. Then Lacey said that before he decided on whether his state would be represented at Birmingham he would have to think a bit.

The Democratic leaders in the other southern states have yet to comment on the Birmingham session. It was in 1860 that the South, angered because the party refused to include a plank on states' rights in its platform, bolted and thereby insured the election of Abraham Lincoln as president.

The southerners insisted that each state should determine whether it would be a free or slave state and that slave owners had the right to migrate into the territories with their slaves.

Liberal Party Has Complete Slate of Election Names

It was announced today by Edward T. Burns, Ulster county chairman of the Liberal Party, that a complete slate of candidates will be placed in the field in the coming general elections.

Following are the candidates nominated at a county committee meeting which was held on Monday, July 12, at 277 Fair street.

Senator—Jacob J. Schneider, 75 West Union street.

Member of assembly—Christopher D. Morris, 46 Clinton avenue.

County clerk—Raymond A. McAndrew, 304 East Union street.

Brooklyn Woman Is Heart Victim

Miss Carmella De Alessandro, 48, of 77-14 66th street, Brooklyn, was seized with a heart attack Wednesday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock as she was walking along the road near Highland. Dr. Carl F. Meekins of Highland was summoned and pronounced the woman dead. Coroner Jesse McHugh and State Police at Highland were notified.

Coroner McHugh after giving a verdict of death by natural causes, directed that the body be turned over to Undertaker Clifton B. Carpenter at Highland who took the remains to the home of the woman's mother, Mrs. Antoinette De Alessandro at Centerville, town of Lloyd.

Will Retain Office

Philadelphia, July 15 (AP)—Senator Alben Barkley of Kentucky said today he will retain his Senate place while campaigning for vice president on the Democratic ticket.

"The answer is no," the 70-year-old Kentuckian said when asked if he would resign his Senate seat because of his nomination for the No. 2 place on the ticket headed by President Truman. Barkley plans to stop in Washington on his way home to Paducah, Kentucky. "I'm going to get a week or so of rest at home," he said. "I have had no vacations for

Strike Action Considered
Detroit, July 15 (AP)—The C.I.O. United Auto Workers considered possible strike action against the Ford Motor Co. today after rejecting a 13 cents an hour wage increase for 116,000 employees. Members of the U.A.W.-C.I.O.'s National Ford Council met in private consultations which union sources said might lead to a recommendation for a strike call. The international union would have to approve any strike.

Lifebuoy with its Purifying Ingredient
GETS SKIN CLEANER
STOPS "B.O." as no other leading soap can!

Is it happiness in love YOU want? Then remember that other people find you most attractive when you're considered clean about "B.O."! Bathe daily with Lifebuoy. It stops "B.O."—gives you lasting protection 24 hours a day.

LIFEBUOY
so refreshing - so mild
GETS SKIN CLEANER

DOCTORS PROVED with 820 scientific tests the truth of this amazing statement...

The cleaner you get your skin, the doctors found, the safer you are from "B.O." (body odor). Any soap will remove all the grime and perspiration you can see. But it's the "invisible dirt," the doctors say, that may form a foothold for "B.O."

The doctors compared the effects of daily baths with different soaps. The results are amazing! Actually you are cleaner, safer from "B.O." when you take your daily bath with Lifebuoy. After 820 scientific tests doctors say Lifebuoy's clean-smelling purifying ingredient makes the difference. And this same purifying ingredient actually makes Lifebuoy milder... safe even for a baby's tender skin!

So use Lifebuoy in your daily bath... because Lifebuoy gets skin cleaner, keeps you safer from "B.O."! Lifebuoy is made from a special oil blend that gives you such an abundant, refreshing lather. Remember: Lifebuoy gives you cleaner skin... stops "B.O." as no other leading soap can!

Bloodhounds Used To Search for Man In Port Jervis Area

Port Jervis, N. Y., July 15 (AP)—State police, aided by bloodhounds, today sought Eugene Baehr, 82, of 25 Southfield road, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., missing since yesterday afternoon.

Baehr arrived yesterday morning and went to the residence of Albert Augustine, at Cahoonzie, 10 miles north of Port Jervis, for a visit. He went fishing in the afternoon, returned to the Augustine home and left again about 4:30 p. m.

Members of the Augustine family searched for about four hours. Unable to find any trace of him they called on state police for aid. Bloodhounds were brought from Hawthorne to search the thick woods in the vicinity.

Paper Bolts Party

Dothan, Ala., July 15 (AP)—The Dothan (Ala.) Eagle, in a front page editorial today, "bolted" the Democratic party and announced it would support the Dewey-Warren ticket of the Republican party. "We've had enough" wrote Horace Hall, publisher. "Come hell or high water, we're supporting the Republicans—Governors Dewey and Warren."

Drink More Milk

London, (AP)—Beltons are drinking nearly twice as much milk as they did before the war when they can get it. Many sales, unrationed for the last half of the month, set an all time record for consumption: 145,000,000 gallons, the National Milk Marketing Board reported. These sales were 80 per cent higher than in May 1939. Milk rations for adults are two and one-half pints per week.

The Leaning Tower of Pisa, built as a bell tower, is used rarely for its original purpose, test vibrations increase its tilt.

Many citizens of Pisa, Italy, make a living modeling miniature copies of their famous Leaning Tower for souvenirs.

Community Night Cornell Park

A Community Night program will be held at Cornell Park tonight starting at 8:15 o'clock. The following program has been arranged:

Singing of the Star Spangled Banner, master of ceremonies, Paul Smith; welcome, by the girls choir; Junior Mills Brothers, My Happiness, song by Rose Ferro.

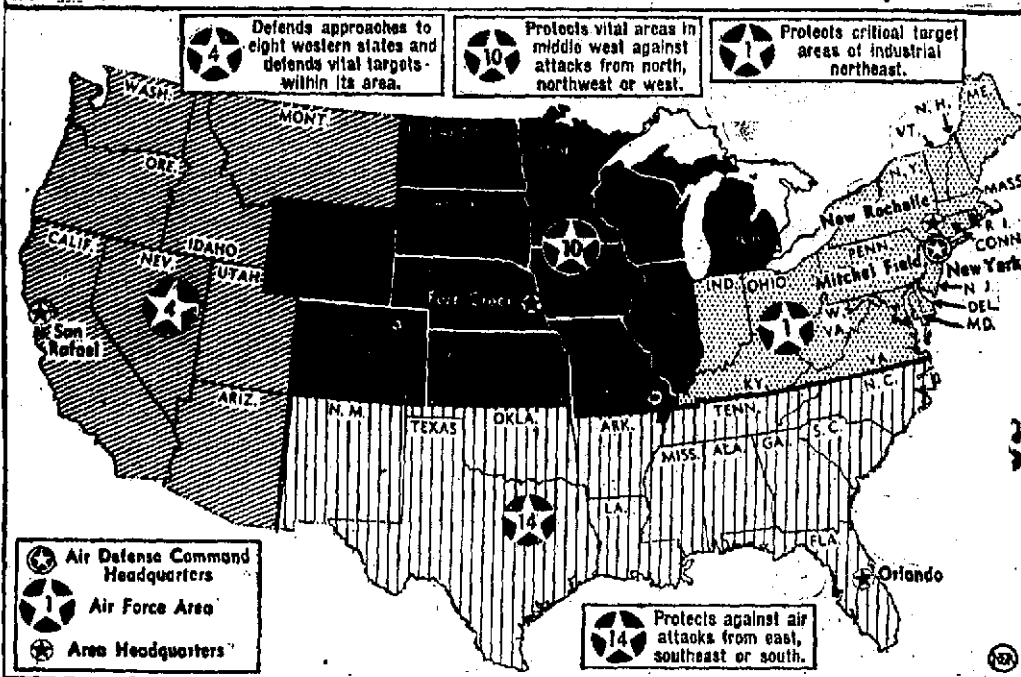

Boxing match, Harold Humphrey vs. Henry Humphrey; Heavyweight, song by Shirley Manfro and Helen Post; Honey, by Colleen Hutton, Gladys Staatenburch and E. Staatenburch. Boogie Woogie, Maxine Jones and Audrey Van Dyke. Short'nin Bread, Brown twins.

Following the watermelon contest and the finale by the Cornell choir, several short subjects will be shown on the screen.

Reorganization Urged

New York, July 15 (AP)—Mayor William O'Dwyer's executive committee on administration today urged a drastic reorganization of the city's department of sanitation. In a report submitted to the mayor, the committee said the department needed overhauling, that "it lacks coordinated planning, proper controls and work standards."

Air Force Streamlines Its Defense Set-Up

Map shows how the U. S. Air Force has just reorganized its Air Defense Command, reducing the latter's six regional air forces to four. The First Air Force absorbs the former 11th A. F. area, which ceases to exist. The 14th A. F. expands to include the former 10th A. F. area. The former Second A. F. is eliminated, becoming the 10th A. F. Air Defense Command headquarters, under Gen. George E. Stratemeyer, are at Mitchell Air Force Base, Hempstead, N. Y.

Rapist Is Given 35 to 70 Years in Prison for Acts

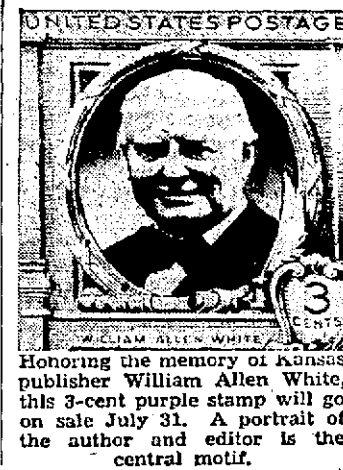

New York, July 15 (AP)—A 24-year-old convicted rapist was sentenced today to 35 to 70 years in prison for the protection of "our womanhood."

The man, Joseph Vicia, was convicted on charges of rape, robbery, burglary and assault. His victim was a Bronx housewife.

Bronx County Judge Samuel Joseph said the sentence was based on other similar crimes committed by Vicia, including three attacks last February 3 in Mount Vernon.

"You must be obliterated from society," Judge Joseph told Vicia.

Haganah Speakers To Talk Palestine At Ulster Park

One of several speakers at a meeting in Vineyard Lodge, Ulster Park, Saturday, at 8 p. m. to discuss Haganah, the army of Israel in Palestine, will be Haim Ginzburg, who has seen action with the Jewish troops.

It is the opinion of Ginzburg and Joseph Seiger, U. S. Army veteran of the North African campaign, also scheduled to speak, that facts be openly discussed regarding Haganah, and the Palestine situation.

The public is invited to hear the speeches and to see the film, "Voyage of the Unafraid," which will be shown.

Army Still Wants Volunteers, Press Radio Men Told

Entertaining local press and radio representatives at a luncheon in the Governor Clinton Wednesday, Col. Lathrop Bullene, commanding officer of the U. S. Army and Air Force, Southern New York Recruiting Service, said that volunteer soldiers are still sought after, regardless of the draft.

"Uncle Sam still welcomes those who desire to enlist," he said, and stressed, "The army feels that volunteers make better soldiers in a way because of their choice of the service as a career." He pointed out also that it costs the government less in the cases of enlistees because they remain in the army and the money spent on training them is not laid out for just a short period as in the instance of a selective service soldier.

Kingston's recruiting office in the central post office will remain open for young men who desire to join the army, he said.

Guests of the army at the luncheon, who heard Col. Bullene, were Joe Kelly of The Freeman, Manager James L. Brownell and Dick McCarthy, newscaster of WKNY; Dick Thibaut of the U-ster County News; also Major Stephen Hewitt, Capt. J. Erik Collin II, Capt. William Heffernan of the recruiting command; First Sergeant Moir Venable and Master Sergeant John Welch, the two non-commissioned officers in charge of the local recruiting station.

Colonel Bullene paid a special visit to Bob Browning, another local newscaster, who served as a captain in World War I.

The purpose of the occasion was to formally express appreciation to the local press and radio for assistance in recruiting. "The army is grateful for your cooperation," Colonel Bullene told his guests and received assurance that it would continue.

$110,000 Suit Filed Against Highland Man

New York, July 15 (Special)—A $110,000 suit was instituted in United States District Court here, it was learned Wednesday, against Frank Filiberti, Bluepoint Road, Highland, for injuries sustained by two boys when a motorcycle they were riding on Route 9W was struck by his auto at Bluepoint Road on June 21, 1947. The boys, Theodore Jones, 16, and Nicholas Monaco, 19, both of Lyndhurst, N. J., each claims damages of $50,000, and their fathers, James H. Jones and Anthony Monaco, also of Lyndhurst, each seeks medical expenses of $5,000.

The youths say that they received brain concussions and internal injuries as a result of the mishap. Their lawyer, Benjamin Gold of New York, claims that Filiberti backed his car into the roadway, and collided with the motorcycle. He charges Filiberti with "careless" driving and with responsibility for the accident.

Guralnick Case Postponed in Court

An adjourned session of county court was held this morning at 10 o'clock. The assault, first and second degree, charges against Morris Guralnick, alias 'Moe Gold', were to have been heard. However, since the case was set down Gold has escaped from the county jail and is still at large. Gold together with four other prisoners effected an escape last Sunday after assaulting jail guards. All of the other prisoners have been returned to jail.

The Gold case as well as the arson, second degree, charge against Henry Sutton, Jr., were adjourned to Wednesday, July 21 at 10 o'clock.

At that time District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn expects to be ready for a partial report by the grand jury and present to the court indictments in the jail break case as well as other cases.

Will Hold Meeting

Power Shortage Hits Hausfraus

the laws, on a basis of equality with all citizens as guaranteed by the Constitution.

"We highly commend President Harry Truman for his courageous stand on the issue of civil rights."

"We call upon the Congress to support our President in guaranteeing these basic and fundamental American principles—the right to full and equal political participation; the right to equal opportunity of employment; the right of security of person, and the right of equal treatment in the service and defense of our nation."

When the platform draft reached the convention floor yesterday afternoon, the civil rights plank contained only three paragraphs.

It was after the southerners lost their fight to insert a separate states' rights declaration that former Rep. Andrew Biehl of Wisconsin proposed the two additional paragraphs singling out Mr. Truman's specific anti-discrimination program.

During the debate in the hot, muggy hall, Robert Figg of South Carolina shouted to his fellow delegates that they were officiating at "the funeral of the Democratic party."

South Is Out-Voted
But the south was hopelessly out-voted. The walkout didn't come at once, however.

Chairman Sam Rayburn gave the convention into recess before the angry Alabama and Mississippi delegates could gain recognition.

When the delegates reassembled for their final session and the call of the states began for presidential nominations, Handy Ellis, chairman of the Alabama delegation, made it official.

He said that because of a pledge to the people of his state not to vote for either a Republican, Harry S. Truman or anyone standing on the kind of platform that had been adopted.

"Thirteen of the delegates and all but three of the alternates will proceed to walk out of this convention and report to the Democratic party of Alabama."

Ellis said he was authorized to say that Mississippi was doing the same.

"I bid you good-bye," he said with a bow.

"Good Riddance" Is Farewell
"Good riddance!" a Wisconsin delegate yelled. "We'll win in November without you."

"The hell you will!" Ellis roared back. "Harry Truman won't get $5.50 from the white people in Georgia to help his campaign."

While the Alabama and Mississippi delegates were waiting for a chance to take their walk, Gov. Ben Lancy of Arkansas withdrew as a southern bloc's presidential candidate. He said that if nominated he could not support the platform ratified by a majority of the delegates.

So from the south, only the name of Senator Richard B. Russell of Georgia went before the convention—futilely but bitterly in a nominating speech by Delegate Charles J. Block of Georgia.

"You shall not crucify the south on a cross of civil rights," Block shouted to the delegates.

But at his home at Winder, Ga., early today—after he got 263 of the convention's 1,234 votes—Russell said he will have no part in Saturday's Birmingham meeting.

Lancy said he would confer with other Dixie leaders before deciding his next step.

Yesterday's walkout recalled the great party bolt of 1860 when Democrats, in convention at Charleston, S. C., split on the slavery plank in the platform.

Southern Democrats wanted the platform to say that a slave-owner could go into any new territory of the West and be fully protected by the federal government in his constitutional right to own slaves.

The platform committee upheld this view. But a minority report was presented to the convention—just as it was yesterday. It ignored the slavery issue.

After a terrific fight, the minority report was adopted. Eight southern delegations walked out. The party was so shaken that it adjourned without nominating any candidates.

Later it met again at Baltimore. Three more southern states bolted. The remaining delegates nominated Stephen A. Douglas for the presidency.

Douglas believed that the people of each territory should decide for themselves whether to allow slavery.

The bolting southerners held a convention at Richmond and nominated John C. Breckenridge of Kentucky.

The Republican party was solidly united under Abraham Lincoln and was elevated to the White House.

No Democrat got back for 24 years.

Where Bad Money's Good
Bangkok, (AP) — Counterfeiters are so good in Siam that experts have trouble detecting forgeries. So said a criminal court judge, dismissing a charge that a village medicine man had 49 false notes for the purchase of roots, bark and leaves he used for doctoring. Since Bank of Siam exports had difficulty telling a counterfeit note from a real one, said judge, you couldn't expect villagers to spot the bad ones.

Educators Elect Woman President

Maybel Studebaker, Erie, Pa., schoolteacher, just elected president of the National Education Association, gets a few pointers from her predecessor, Glenn Snow, of St. George, Utah. Miss Studebaker was chosen at the organization's 80th national convention in Cleveland, O.

Radio Links Delegates
Copenhagen, (AP) — Each delegate to the Inter-European Radio Wavelength Congress meeting in Copenhagen, received a tiny three tube receiving set to wear in a belt from his shoulder. The congress sessions are translated by interpreters and delegates are able to dial in on their own language to follow the discussion, no matter where they are in town. The congress, expected to last about two months, will distribute the wavelengths of some 300 stations.

Slow Gold Mining
Sydney, Australia, (AP) — Gold production in Australia is still declining, although experts say a great fortune is waiting to be mined. The output for April was 61,036 fine ounces valued at $2,099,520. In March it was 65,007 ounces and in April last year 68,586. Although still greater than during the war years, the production of gold is lower than pre-war figures. In 1939, 1,643,697 fine ounces were produced, but last year the total output was down to 1,088,003 ounces.

Four Are Wounded

New York, July 15 (AP)—Three bystanders and a policeman were wounded yesterday when a 39-year-old man jerked a pistol from the policeman's holster and began firing wildly. The shooting occurred at Rockaway Beach while hundreds of ocean bathers milled about. Police said Joseph A. Kuhn, of Manhattan, upset by an argument with his wife, grabbed the pistol from Patrolman Adam Rotondo's holster, and quickly fired six times. The four persons hit suffered only minor wounds, police said. Kuhn was booked on a charge of felonious assault.

Clintondale Supper

The annual fair and buffet supper of Clintondale Friends Church will be held at the church on Wednesday, July 28. Supper will be ready at 6 p. m. There will be booths offering various articles for sale.

So They Say...

Selective service is a temporary expedient for immediate provision of manpower for the armed forces and reserves. It should be replaced as soon as possible by the more wholesome long-range program—universal training.

—Gwilym A. Price, president of the Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Russia is right in opposing a

United States policy in Germany which would restore to power the very same men and groups which created the Nazi war machine.

—Henry A. Wallace.

The basis of Japanese aggression was its overseas empire. It has now lost this empire and cannot regain it without military power. You may rest assured that the American people and government will make sure that it does not do so.

—John Leighton Stuart, U. S. ambassador to China.

We Socialists emphatically disagree with Wallace that peace can be had by appeasing Communist totalitarianism.

Had Real Affection
Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y., July 15 (AP)—Henry L. Stimson, former secretary of state and twice secretary of war, said today that he had a "real affection" for Gen. John J. Pershing, who died early today in Washington. "I had a very high respect for General Pershing, his courage and initiative and the way he stood up for sending us into action in World War I, an American army under American leadership," Stimson said.

Large Turnout Is Anticipated for Merchants' Dinner

Although complete returns are not in on reservations, Herman G. Rafalowsky was optimistic today concerning a large turnout at the merchants dinner and dance scheduled for Wednesday, July 21, at Twaalfskill Golf Club.

As general chairman of the event, Rafalowsky today said, "We anticipate that this affair will be one of the most successful ever arranged for local business people." Then the central Broadway clothes ran over the program which will include golfing, outdoor games such as pitching horse shoes, etc., and added that the evening's slate of activities would feature a dance with music until 1 a. m. by the Columbians, a five-piece band.

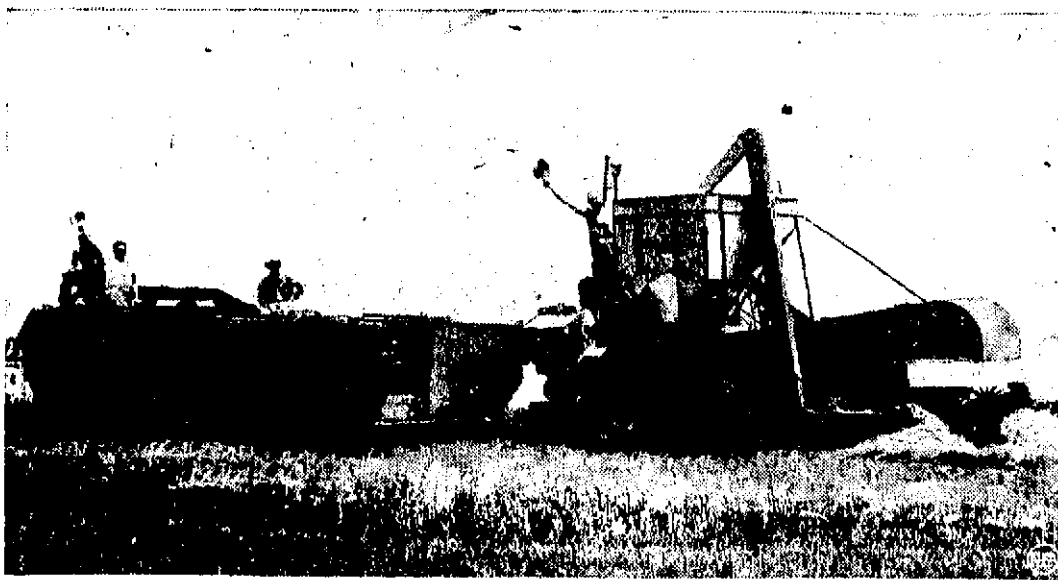

For those who like golf, there will be special greens fee for the afternoon portion of the program, which will cut down the cost of the sport. All facilities of the club will be at the disposal of the merchants and their guests.

In order to facilitate ordering for the meal, which is to be in the form of a buffet supper, at 6:30 p. m., Chairman Rafalowsky stressed the importance of making early returns on tickets for the event. "We don't want to slight anybody, and hope that all contemplating attendance will send in money for the tickets at once, or return the tickets, for distribution to those who are demanding extras," he said.

As the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the event, Chairman Rafalowsky advised that returns be made to the organization's office in the Governor Clinton Hotel building.

Farmer Makes a Beachhead in a Wheat Field

Billy Koelsch, St. John, Kan., wheat farmer, hitched his combine to a war surplus landing barge when heavy rains made his fields too muddy for ordinary tractors. Koelsch's ingenuity saved his wheat crop, which yielded about 30 bushels to the acre. With regular equipment, he would have had to wait another week before he could harvest.

recent currency reform in the western zones of Germany and of the decision of the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg to establish a federal western German government.

"The situation which has arisen in Berlin and in the whole of Germany, the Russian note said, 'is a direct consequence of the systematic violation of decisions of the Potsdam conference by the governments of the U.S.A., Great Britain and France.'"

"The Russians referred to the transportation restrictions they have imposed on Berlin as 'temporary measures.' Their reply continued: 'It cannot, however, be denied that these difficulties were caused by the actions of the governments of the U.S.A., Britain and France and above all by their separate actions in introducing new currency in the western zones of Germany and special currency in the western sectors of Berlin.'"

"Berlin is in the center of the Soviet zone and part of that zone. Interests of the Berlin population do not admit of a situation where there has been introduced in Berlin or even only in the western sectors of Berlin a special currency which is not in circulation in the Soviet zone."

"The Soviet government was compelled therefore to adopt urgent measures to safeguard the interests of the German population as well as the economy of the Soviet zone of occupation and the area of 'greater Berlin.' The danger of the destruction of normal economic activity in the Soviet zone of occupation and Berlin has not been averted even yet since the U.S.A., Britain and France continue to maintain their own special currency in Berlin."

The Russian government said it was prepared, if necessary, to assure with its own resources 'sufficient supplies' for all of greater Berlin. The reply added cryptically that Russia is 'striving for the speediest elimination of the difficulties that led to the blockade.'"

By describing Berlin as part of the Soviet zone, the Russians directly challenged statements in the three powers' protests that 'Berlin is not a part of the Soviet zone, but is an international zone of occupation.'"

In Frankfurt, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. commander in Germany, declined comment on the Russian note, saying: "This is a matter for my government to handle."

of St. Mary's School, Steuding said.

The elimination of the Broadway grade crossing has been approved as a state project, but just when work will start is not known here. According to records at the city assessor's office, the only piece of property which the state has so far acquired on Broadway near the railroad tracks is a parcel at the corner of Greenkill avenue containing about one-half of the frontage of the United States Hotel. Documents transferring this parcel to the state were filed with the county clerk in February.

Other of the city streets scheduled for reconstruction during the next two weeks, according to Steuding, include McIntee street from Broadway to Wurts street and East Chester street from the city line to Meade street. The first course of surfacing has been completed on Albany avenue from Foxhall avenue to Wrentham street, and it is expected to complete that project next week, Steuding said. Washington avenue reconstruction from North Front street to Linderman avenue was finished this week.

Diesel Increase

The ratio of steam locomotive production to that of diesel-electric types is shrinking sharply.

One manufacturer alone reports that diesel-electrics accounted for 83 per cent of its production in 1947, a rise of 60 per cent over 1946.

Altogether, London has four Trafalgar Squares. In addition to the famous one, there are others at Stepney, Chelsea, and Peckham.

EAT WELL for Less

Vegetable Dish Keys Light Meal

Fresh vegetables baked with cheese sauce, garnished with stuffed eggs, make a substantial main course.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Staff Writer

For luncheon, or for a light dinner, combine vegetable and cheese into a baked main dish.

Vegetable Garden Special

(Serves 6)

Twelve small new potatoes, 1 cup green onions, cut in 1/2-inch pieces, 2 cups fresh peas, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 3 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 1/2 cups milk,

1 cup grated cheddar cheese (4 ounces).

Pare potatoes and cook for about 15 minutes. Add green onions and peas to potatoes; continue cooking about 15 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Arrange vegetables in well-greased heat-resistant glass 1 1/2-quart baking dish. Melt butter in top of double boiler. Stir in flour, salt and pepper. Add milk; cook over boiling water until mixture is thickened and no starchy taste remains, or for about 20 minutes. Stir in grated cheese until it is melted. Pour sauce over vegetables in baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 15 minutes. Serve with deviled egg salad and vegetable relishes.

Here's another substantial vegetable dish:

Fried Eggplant With Cheese Sauce

(Serves 4-6)

One medium-sized eggplant, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup dry bread crumbs, 1/2 cup fat.

Slice eggplant into thin slices and peel. Beat egg slightly with water and add salt. Dip eggplant in egg and then bread crumbs; fry in hot skillet in part of fat. Add fat from time to time as needed. Keep slices of fried eggplant hot by placing on a pre-heated 15-inch heat-resistant glass platter.

Cheese Sauce: One can mushroom soup (10 ounces), 1/2 cup water, 1 cup grated Parmesan cheese. Heat soup and water together in a saucepan. Add cheese and cook until melted, stirring constantly. Serve eggplant on glass platter, accompanied with hot cheese sauce.

TOMORROW'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Blackberries, cornflakes, whole wheat toast, butter or fortified margarine, marmalade, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Salmon and celery salad, lettuce, sliced tomatoes, hot buttered toast, stewed plums, peanut cookies, tea, milk.

DINNER: Vegetable garden special, stuffed eggs, corn on cob, enriched soft rolls, butter or fortified margarine, lettuce and tomato salad, bulk ice cream, hot chocolate sauce, coffee, milk.

Procter & Gamble's Amazing New DISCOVERY

means a new kind of washday for you!

IT'S TIDE

... you've never used anything like it!

TIDE is the kind of miracle that could happen only in this age of science. Discovered as a result of wartime research, Tide does what's never been done before—washes clothes cleaner than any soap, yet leaves colors brighter! The minute you put Tide in water, you'll know it's a completely NEW product! Tide suds billow up thick and fast—even in hardest water! And those wonder suds look different ... feel different from any soap you've ever used!

ONLY Tide DOES ALL FOUR!

1. Washes clothes cleaner!
Yes, cleaner than any soap made! Even grimy overalls come cleaner with Tide! Tide not only leaves clothes free from ordinary dirt, but actually removes dingy soap film as well! Tide leaves no film itself ... removes soap film left by former washings! That's why Tide washes cleaner!

2. Actually brightens colors!
By removing cloudy soap film, as well as the ordinary dirt, Tide makes soap-dulled, faded-looking colors perk up like magic! Yes, Tide is really safe for dainty washable colors!

3. Never "yellows" white things!
Tide is a whiz for keeping all your white things sparkling white, week after week! Tide can't turn them yellow, no matter how often they're washed or how long they're stored!

4. Gives more suds—Prove it in your dishpan!
Kind-to-hands suds! Faster suds! Longer-lasting suds than any soap in hardest water! Tide cuts grease like magic ... washes dishes cleaner than any soap! No suds in the water! No greasy ring round the pan! No cloudy film on dishes and glasses! That's why they rinse and dry so sparkling clear—even without wiping!

TIDE'S IN-DIRT'S OUT!

TIDE WORKS EXTRA MIRACLES IN HARD WATER! OCEANS OF SUDS! NO WATER SOFTENERS NEEDED!

HIGH FALLS

High Falls, July 15.—Reformed Church, the Rev. Gerritt Timmer, minister—Morning worship services at 9:45 with the Rev. Hanson of Hurley conducting the services. Sunday school will convene at 9 o'clock. The Rev. and Mrs. Timmer started Monday on a five weeks trip through the west which will take them to the Pacific coast, where they will visit relatives in Washington. En route they will stop over with other relatives in North Dakota, some of whom they have not seen for 15 years. There will be services in the church each Sunday during their absence.

St. John's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Robert Ward, vicar—Morning worship services at 10 and Sunday school at 9:15. The Guild met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Warren Belmont, Sr., with 11 members present.

Mrs. Fordham Protos of Poughkeepsie spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Schoonmaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutton and Mrs. Ray VanDemark and William Floss motored to Albany on Saturday to visit. Mrs. VanDemark's sister-in-law, Mrs. Victor Every in the Albany Hospital.

Miss Patricia Bench of the local Brownies is spending some time at Camp Wendy in Wallkill. Donald and Robert Andersen spent the first part of the week in Brooklyn visiting their grandmother, Mrs. John Olsen.

Mrs. Leonore Andersen went to New York last Friday. Next Friday, she sails on the Swedish liner, Gripsholm for a visit in Norway with her sister in Oslo. She will also visit other relatives and friends there, returning in November.

Mrs. John Sedden and son, John Jr., and Mrs. Eleanor Helberg and children of Brooklyn who are vacationing in Pine Bush called on Mrs. Sedden's sister, Mrs. Richard Andersen on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaefer and son John Patrick of Hartford, Conn., are spending their vacation at Rock Cliff House and visiting their many friends here.

Mrs. Isabel Stokes entertained Mrs. Clara Burker and Miss Edith Turner of Stone Ridge on Thursday.

Mrs. Isabel Stokes spent the week-end in Poughkeepsie with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Snelling.

The Mornel Club met last Wednesday with Mrs. Roy Ransom. Those present were the Wines, Clifford Easton, Howard Easton, Howard VanWinkle, Ruth Roesa and cousin from New Jersey and Miss Sarah Lounsbury.

Mrs. Abram Jansen of New Paltz who is now staying with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Van Winkle in Stone Ridge, called on the Krom sisters on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Mickelson of Cleveland, Ohio, visited friends in this vicinity last week. Mrs. Mickelson is the former Arletta Stilwell and lived for some time on the farm now occupied by Lloyd Coddington. This was Mr. Mickelson's first trip to Ulster County and they visited Ashokan Reservoir, the Roosevelt home in Hyde Park and many other places of interest.

Financial and Commercial

New York, July 15 (AP)—The stock market dawdled into lower price territory today.

Aside from a handful of specialties which attracted demand, losses ranged from fractions to around a point.

Only modest activity developed, especially among the usual leaders of the market.

Curtiss-Wright was one of the few to move ahead, and this seemed to stimulate interest in some other aircraft issues. They included Consolidated Vultee, Republic Aviation, Martin, and United Aircraft.

Also higher were Schenley, Distillers Corp.-Seagrams, United Cigar-Whelan, Western Union and Caterpillar Tractor.

Marked down were U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Goodrich, J. I. Case, American Telephone, General Electric, Texas Gulf Sulphur, Southern Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line, Nickel Plate and Gulf Oil.

In the curb Northrop Aircraft and Equity Corp. advanced. U. S. government issues held steady in the over-the-counter market.

Must Resort to Arms

Berlin, July 15 (AP)—A British air force spokesman said tonight the Russians cannot interfere with Allied air traffic to western Berlin without resorting to military action. The spokesman, R.A.F. Capt. H. M. Wright, air expert of the British Control Commission, made this statement to a news conference in commenting upon threats in the Russian-controlled press to interfere with the Allied air corridors bringing supplies to blockaded Berlin. "I can't think of anything they could do about changing the agreed corridor rules except by military action," Wright said.

Peacetime Result of Atomic Research

Two workers gingerly carry 20 grams of a radio-active isotope into an underground safety vault at the Ford Motor Company's Dearborn, Mich., applied physics laboratory. The material, one unit of Selenium 75, will be used for experiments in industrial research. A 60-pound, lead-lined, radiation-proof container is used to carry the 20-gram isotope.

Three-Day-Old Baby Flees War

'Electric Nerve' Aids Polio Victims

A new "electrical nerve" which acts as a substitute for human nerves affected by infantile or other paralysis, is demonstrated at the first international polio conference in New York. The device generates mild electric currents which replace lost nerves. They cause muscles to tense, swell and relax the same as they do in mild exercise. This helps to restore limbs wasted by polio. The "electric" nerve was developed by General Electric engineers and the G-E X-ray corporation.

Tries Pre-War Fascists

Grudziadz, Poland, (U)—A district court will shortly try what is described as "the first case of pre-war Fascists." The defendants are Maselkowski and Mieczyslaw Omsinski. The indictment charges that they, as jailers, in the year 1932 to 1939 administered brutal treatment to Polish prisoners in the Grudziadz jail, particularly members of the Polish Communist party.

Fares Will Increase

Washington, July 15 (AP)—Higher passenger fares on eastern railroads will become generally effective next Monday. An Interstate Commerce Commission official said today that "practically all of the carriers have now filed the notices required to start collecting the authorized increases on that day. The new rates will be 20 per cent higher in coaches and about 14 per cent higher in sleeping and parlor cars.

SHOKAN

Shokan, July 15—Michael Anthony of the Bronx is spending this week with his wife and children at their rented cottage on VanSteenburgh road.

Callers in the village Monday included Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ficke and son, Robert of New York. The Fickes, frequent summer visitors here, spent several months in the heights section two years ago.

Other callers Charles Gustavson, Milant Bell and John Darling were doing some field work in the hub of the reservoir country Monday.

There was a deal of grading activity on the new Route 28 job between DuBois Corner and Temple Road early this week. The big hill at the pond now has been taken nearly down to size and what with the roadbed pretty well settled, it looks as though the concrete machinery will soon be pushing up this way. Work on the second line has progressed nearly through the West Hurley cut and motorists are being treated to brief spins on the new pavement for about a mile in the aggregate. (Sure is nice rolling!)

Men of Ulster

One of the most prominent physicians in this country 40 years ago and more was Harvey Clement Keator of the town of Rosendale, who was born, 1860, one of six children of Calvin and Lavina Keator. His father was of Huguenot descent, one of his ancestors having been Hugo Freer, one of the 12 Palitz Patenteers. He attended the local school, working on the family farm in summer, and later clerked in the J. A. Snyder store for three years, after which he lived two years at Fort Scott, Kansas, and also in the Deadwood gold mining section of the Black Hills. He next covered several states as traveling boot and shoe salesman, returning to Rosendale four years after his departure from home. Mr. Keator, having decided upon a medical career, studied for a time in the village and then entered Long Island College Hospital where he received his M.D. degree in 1891. He built up an exceptionally large practice in Rosendale and adjacent towns and held the confidence and respect of the public as a physician and citizen. In the early 1900's he removed to Kingston where in addition to his practice he manufactured several proprietary articles which had a large sale. He died, 1915, in Kingston. Rather interesting, coincidentally, is the fact that Doctor Keator's given names are identical with the surnames of two widely known physicians: the English Dr. Harvey who discovered circulation of the blood, and Doctor Clement of Schuylerville, Saratoga county.

Add Fizz Water to Baked Fish

By GAYNOR MADDOX
N.E.A. Staff Writer

Baked fish fits into the budget menu and makes an especially good hot weather main dish. Every serving carbonated beverages with it? Good. And here's a new discovery—a little carbonated beverage added to the stuffing improves the flavor.

Baked Fish with Sea-Breeze Dressing (Serves 6)

Two and one-half to 3 pounds salt water fish, dressed, whole; 1 bottle (7-ounce size) lithiated lemon-lime soda, 3 tablespoons chopped onion, 3 tablespoons bacon drippings or other shortening, 2/3 teaspoon celery salt, 1/2 teaspoon thyme, 2/3 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 1/3 cups soft bread crumbs, firmly packed; 1/2 teaspoon salt, sprigs of parsley, 6 lemon slices.

Chill carbonated beverage in refrigerator before using. Oil or grease bottom of shallow baking pan; place well greased brown paper or cheese cloth in bottom. (The paper helps to remove fish without breaking when done.) Set oven at 400 degrees F.

To Prepare Fish for Dressing:

Rinse fish in cold salted water; drain or wipe dry.

To Prepare Dressing: Sauté onion lightly in the drippings; blend in celery salt and thyme. Remove from heat; add parsley, bread crumbs, salt and mix lightly. Blend in one-third of the bottled lemon-lime soda; recap bottle and return to refrigerator until needed.

To Stuff: Fill cavity two-thirds full with dressing. Close with toothpicks or skewers and lace with string or heavy thread.

To Bake: Place fish in baking pan. Bake 10 to 15 minutes; then pour over remaining lemon-lime soda. Continue baking 10 to 15 minutes or until done.

To Serve: Carefully lift fish from baking pan and transfer to platter or serving platter. Remove skewers and lacings. Garnish with parsley and lemon slices.

Kate Elkin of town Wawarsing to Frank and Beekie Miller of Brooklyn.

Town Marbletown—D. A. Merritt of Kingston to Elsie M. and William K. Perry and another of Brooklyn.

City of Kingston—Anthony Erena to Ruth O. Howland of Kingston. Donald P. and Jessie Williams of Kingston to Myra F. Hamlin of New York. Charles S. Barnett to Albert Barnett to Mary King of Kingston.

Town Marlborough—Elizabeth Rheinhard of Astoria to Elizabeth Prietier of Queens.

Prices Are at Peak

New York, July 15 (AP)—Meat prices now are higher than at any time in the 14 years of the New York Department of Markets records, Commissioner Eugene C. Schultz said today. He said all popular cuts of meat have risen 8 per cent since July 1 and cost the consumer 24 per cent more than they did a year ago. Loin lamb chops and veal cutlets, Schultz said, are up 10 cents from July 1 at $1.20 a pound; sirloin steak at $1.10 a pound is 11 cents higher, and porterhouse steak at $1.15 is 10 cents higher than two weeks ago. Among other current prices he cited pork loin chops 85 cents, smoked hams 73 cents and leg of lamb, 83 cents.

Little Gardens Club Meets

Little Gardens Club met at Ye Nieuw Dorp, Hurley, Friday afternoon with Mrs. Gertrude Groves and Miss Bessie Brewster as hostesses. The paper for the day was presented by Mrs. William McNamara and was entitled "A Pen Portrait of Maye E. Bruce."

Miss Bruce is an English woman who has made the study of compost making her life work. Through her experiments and research she has aided her country greatly in the problem of building and revitalizing the soil.

Following this paper there was an interesting discussion of the subject of composts.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served.

Following Church Wedding

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE R. LOUGHRAN

The marriage of Miss Anna May Victoria Falatyn, 12 Cottage Row, and George Raymond Loughran, 221 Catherine street, was performed Saturday, July 10, before a Nuptial Mass in Immaculate Conception Church. (Kinkadee and Hutton).

George Loughran Weds Anna May Falatyn, Teacher at Millbrook

The wedding of Miss Anna May Victoria Falatyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Falatyn of 12 Cottage Row, to George Raymond Loughran, 221 Catherine street, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Loughran, was performed at 10:30 a. m. Saturday, July 10, at Immaculate Conception Church. The double ring ceremony was performed before a Nuptial Mass by the Rev. Joseph Szecek, pastor of the parish.

Miss Theresa Gehring was organist. Miss Elleen Reis sang Ave Maria during the wedding ceremony and assisted in singing the responses to the Mass. The main altar was decorated with white summer flowers and candles. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Spanish style gown of white mousseline de soie made with a tier shaped ruffled skirt, and long fitted bodice finished with a net yoke marked with crystal beading. Her mitts and veil, which was a Spanish mantilla, were of imported lace. She carried a white orchid with streamers and a satin covered nosegay.

Miss Bernice Palatyn, sister of the bride was maid of honor and wore a Nile green marquisette Spanish style gown. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow painted daisies. Daisies also were used in her headpiece. The other bridesmaids wore Miss Mary Meink and Mrs. William Hopper, cousins of the bride. Both wore gowns of lilac marquisette, large net hats of blending lilac and carried cascade bouquets of yellow gladioli.

William Loughran was best man for his brother. Ushers were Frank F. Falatyn, brother of the bride, and Philip Scitile.

A reception was held for approximately 100 guests at The Tropical Inn. Miss Joan Raczkowski, cousin of the bride, played a piano solo in honor of the bride couple.

Upon their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Loughran will make their home in Kingston.

The bride was graduated from Immaculate Conception school, Academy of St. Ursula and College of St. Rose. She also attended University of Mexico and is a member of the faculty at Millbrook Memorial High School where she teaches Spanish and Latin.

Mr. Loughran was graduated from Coyne Electronic School, Chicago, Ill., served with the 10th Armored Division for four years in Europe, and is a general contractor.

Fred Martino Weds Carmela Del Gaudio In Brooklyn Church

The marriage of Miss Carmela Del Gaudio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Del Gaudio, 138 Van Sicker street, Brooklyn, to Fred Martino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Martino, 49 Henry street, was performed Sunday at 4:30 p. m. in Sacred Hearts-St. Stephens Church, Brooklyn. A double ring ceremony was used.

Mr. Del Gaudio escorted his daughter. Her gown on train was fashioned of satin and lace. She wore a finger tip French illusion veil with headpiece of seed pearls and orange blossoms. For her bouquet, she selected gardenias centered with a white orchid.

Miss Rosalie Del Gaudio, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. Her gown of flesh marquisette was worn with a Nile green headpiece and she carried lilac roses. Other attendants were the Misses Millie Stellato and Rose Grillo, cousins of the bride. They wore gowns fashioned as the maid of honor's with lilac headpieces and carried lilac roses.

Frank Martino, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Anthony Colletti, Brooklyn, cousin of the bridegroom, and Fred Del Gaudio, brother of the bride.

A reception for 275 guests was held at 7:30 p. m. at Flatbush Terrace with music for dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Martino left for a wedding trip to New England and Canada. The bride selected for traveling a pink linen suit with navy and pink accessories. They will reside at 49 Henry street.

Mrs. Martino was graduated from Girl's High School, Brooklyn, and is a former employee of The Brooklyn Trust Co. Mr. Martino attended Kingston High School, Banford Academy of Beauty Culture, New York, and served in the navy three years. He is associated in business with his cousin at "Mam'selle Beauty Salon," 8 Downs street.

PARENTS AT WEDDING RECEPTION

Like many another bride, this one asks: "Where will mother stand to receive the guests at the reception which will take place in a garden? Where does my bridegroom's mother stand? What about the fathers? Do they stand with their wives?"

Both mothers should stand side by side in whatever part of the garden makes the most attractive background. This is the one time where it is not necessary to stand directly at the entrance. The fathers stand with their wives if they care to or they may walk around among the guests, either apart or together.

Sharing One's Visitors

Dear Mrs. Post: When two ladies share a house, owned by only one of them, how far should each go in sharing their visitors? To be explicit, this house belongs to my cousin. We know many of the same people but some of our visitors are primarily my friends, some hers. If, for instance, mine come of an afternoon and my cousin is in the garden or upstairs, should I feel obliged to go look for her to invite her to come join us? Shouldn't she feel free to come in when she discovers their presence or at liberty to stay out if she prefers?

Answer: There are no rules concerning such a situation other than those of thoughtful consideration. When you believe your visitors would be especially interesting to your cousin and she to them, you naturally would ask her to join you. Otherwise, you both follow your own inclinations.

In Place of Funeral Flowers

Dear Mrs. Post: When the family of the deceased requests that flowers be omitted, in what way can friends show their sympathy beyond merely expressing it verbally or by note?

Answer: In lieu of funeral flowers, Catholics often send spiritual bouquets (a Mass said for the deceased). Also, many people make a donation in memory of the deceased, especially if there was an organization in which he (or she) was personally interested.

Mrs. Post's booklet, No. 502, "The Etiquette of Letter Writing," gives suggestions for notes for various occasions as well as the color and quality of paper to use. To obtain a copy send 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Stork Shower Given

High Falls, July 15—Miss Thelma Williams entertained at her home at a stork shower Tuesday evening in honor of her cousin, Mrs. Carl Bush. The rooms were decorated in pastel colors and the gifts filled an old-fashioned cradle in the center of the room. Assisting Miss Williams were her mother, Mrs. Frank Williams and Mrs. Bush's mother, Mrs. Daniel Williams.

Those present in addition to the hostesses and Mrs. Bush were: The Misses, Ellis Briggs, Lester Countryman, Ernest Jansen, Elmer Ayers, Edwin Schomaker, Roscoe Schoonmaker, William Larsen, Arnold vanLaer Jr., Robert Sutton, George Williams, Sterling Jansen, and daughter, Marie Diane, Lulu Williams, and the Misses Anita Abrahamson, Shirley Ayers, and Jane Briggs.

Church School Staff Plans New System

The mid-summer business meeting of the teachers and staff of the First Dutch Reformed Church was held in the church house Tuesday night. A new religious educational plan was decided and will be in use this fall.

The plan will be a chronological study of the life of Christ with different material for each age level. Emphasis will be placed on the importance of religious instruction.

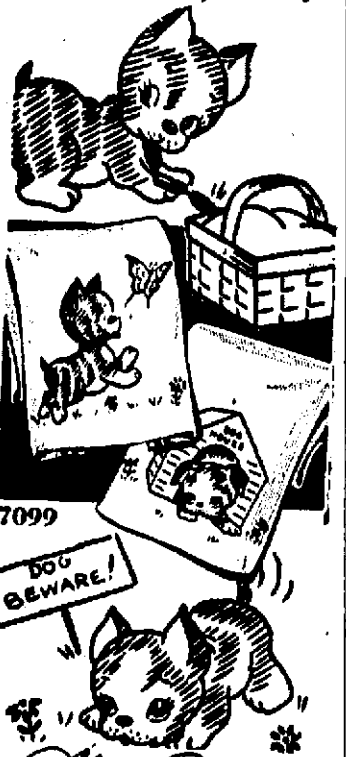

The new material includes textbooks for the students, class work books and a comprehensive magazine for the parents which enables them to follow the course through the year. The program will cost about $500 to install.

The teachers and staff decided to limit the number of students in each class to five in order that more effective teaching can be achieved. A church school staff of 25 persons was deemed the minimum necessary for efficient operation of the school. The church membership will be polled for the additional assistance that this active program requires.

New Sunday school hymnals have been ordered and are expected to arrive shortly to be in use this fall.

To further point up the importance of the church school, the church worship service of September 26 will be known as Rally Sunday. It will include the massing of the three departments of the church school in the service and the rededication of the staff and students in their work.

Russia's Military Forces Are World's Strongest

In terms of armies ready to march into action, Russia is the world's strongest power today—while the U. S. is weaker than at any time since the war. In armored units alone, Russia now has in being three more divisions than the 18 armored and infantry divisions Army Secretary Royall says the U. S. may have by the end of 1949.

Dewey Lauds Pershing

New York, July 15 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey said today that General John J. Pershing was "among the great military leaders of all time." The governor ordered flags on all New York state buildings at half-staff after learning that Pershing died in Washington early today. He issued this statement shortly before leaving for his farm in Pawling: "Few men have contributed so richly to the military success of the United States as has Gen. John J. Pershing. His service as a soldier in the American army was notable and over a long span of years. His place in the pages of history will be among the great military leaders of all time."

Colonials Play Two Here Tonight; Drop 8-7 Game to Chiefs

Bridgeport Bees Will Appear At Stadium on Ladies' Night

The Colonials make their second home appearance since entering the Colonial League in a two-night doubleheader tonight at municipal stadium against the Bridgeport Bees.

First game is scheduled for 6:30 p. m., with Harry Petty and Mahlon "Red" Turner probable starters against the Cuban-studded Nubank State tossers.

The first Ladies' Night of the season also is slated. All these developments should prove a happy turn of affairs for Manager Eddie Kobesky's crew who dropped a heartbreaking 8-7 decision to the league leading Poughkeepsie Chiefs last night before nearly 1,000 fans at Riverview Field in Poughkeepsie.

The game ended in a gruesome note in the ninth. The Colonials essayed a double steal with Kobesky on third and Goldsmith on first. Leach's throw trapped Goldsmith between first and second and on the relay to the plate nailed Kobesky by a yard to end the game, while a large number of Kingston rooters groaned and left the park muttering in their beer.

Ostrom Checks Locals What really hurt was the fact that Billy "The Kid" Ostrom foiled the Colonials in a three-inning relief stint. They had a chance to pin Billy's ears back with the winning run in the seventh and ninth innings but failed.

It was the type of ball game you generally win on sheer statistics but the lavishness of the Colonials was unbelievable. For instance at the end of four innings of play they had 10 hits and 3 runs. Poughkeepsie had 5 hits and 4 runs.

The game was decided in the sixth inning. Kobesky's walk and Elenchin's double knotted the score at 4-4 and caused the retirement of starter Eddie Garlock.

Defensive Sparkled Ostrom survived singles by Feony and pinch-hitter Cashion in the eighth and then got two men out in the ninth before the Chiefs brought in Eli Peteric, a righty, to face Max Goldsmith and set up the situation which ended the game at home plate.

Spectacular fielding and sharp hitting abounded in the slugfest. Kingston reeled off three fast double plays while Matzer and Feony turned in spectacular plays in the field. Matzer collared a low sinking liner off the bat of Eddie Irons to throttle a Chief rally in the first. Lukasik of Poughkeepsie stalled a Colonial rally with a magnificent stop and throw on Goldsmith in the sixth.

Saratoga Win Marks Demon Hanover as Goshen Favorite

New York, July 15 (AP)—Demon Hanover, the citation of the trotting tracks, seemed certain today to go postward the favorite for the $60,000 Hambletonian stake at Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 11.

The three-year-old colt, owned by Harrison Hoyt, amateur driver from Bethel, Conn., put on another convincing performance last night when he captured the $5,000 Adirondack Grand Circuit feature at Saratoga, N. Y., Raceway. The result left the Connecticut trotting Yankee at the head of the list for trotting's Kentucky Derby.

This was the Demon's third major success in New York state's recent grand circuit program, and leaves the professionals in the trotting business somewhat stumped.

They have insisted the son of Dean Hanover-Sorceress should have a professional trainer and driver. No amateur driver, they pointed out, ever had copped the Hambletonian since it first was run and won by Guy McKinnery in 1926.

Fast Initial Race

The 38-year-old Hoyt never heard the critics, although Demon Hanover lost his initial outing of the year. He was back to win his second start, then was nosed out in his third.

The Demon's initial major victory came in an impressive straight-heat performance at Roosevelt Raceway June 23—the Matron stakes. He stepped off miles of 2:10 4/5 and 2:12 2/5 on a rain-slowed track, defeating Pronto, Don, Doc Marshall's gelding star.

Last Friday, Demon Hanover showed 'em how again, capturing the William K. Dickerson Memorial trot at Historic Track, Goshen. The colt broke his gall in the initial heat, and finished tenth. But he came back to take the second and third in 2:08 and 2:05 4/5, displaying sharp form to whip seven other Hambletonian nominees.

Other prominent contenders facing Demon Hanover will get another chance to improve their rating in the $10,000 Saratoga trot for three-year-olds July 21. They include such as Judge Moore, owned by W. N. Reynolds of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Jeff Hanover,

Boulevards Jump Into Second Place Tie in Twi Loop

With three neat one-hitters to his credit, Holcombe "Hookie" Tomson, ace hurler of the Boulevard Gulf squad, is probably wondering this morning just when his time will come for an entry into the City League's Hall of Fame.

Tomson dished up another beautiful pitched ball game Wednesday night at the Athletic Field by allowing just one single to Frank's Sport Shop in churning his fourth victory of the campaign as the Boulevards won easily, 12 to 1.

Tomson's no-hitter bid was ruined right in the first inning when Slicker exploded a sharp single to right. After that, he was invincible allowing no hits for the remaining six frames.

Errors Hurt Losers

While Tomson was handcuffing Frank's his teammates, with the help of four errors by Catcher Olen, pounded out a commanding edge which "Hookie" never required. Two big innings, the fourth and fifth, when the runs trotted over the payoff platter, gave the verdict to the Boulevards in a breeze.

Last night's win sent the Boulevard's into a three-way tie for second place with Jones Dairy and Wiltwyck Motors. All three clubs have won five as against three losses. The Dairyemen will have a chance to take over undisputed possession of the runner-up slot tonight in a game with Stauble's Bakery.

Lay Hits Again

Charlie Lay, City League veteran of 26 campaigns, continued his great hitting spree last night by collecting a single in four trips. It was Charlie's eighth single in his last 12 official times at bat.

After pushing over a pair of runs in the bottom half of the first, the Boulevards added another in the third and then followed with bulges of four in the fourth and five in the fifth. Only four of the 12 markers were earned, however.

Jack Watzka and Julius Chick divided the mound chores for the losers with Watzka being tagged with the loss, his fourth in five starts. They allowed seven hits but deserved better fate as the earned run column will attest.

Po'keepsie Increases Lead As Port Chester Drops Two

(By The Associated Press)
The Poughkeepsie Chiefs were two full games ahead in the Colonial League race today, and had virtually clinched the circuit's all-star game for July 26 by edging out Kingston as Port Chester dropped a double hit.

The last place Stamford Pioneers did the damage to Port Chester's hopes, knocking off the Clippers, 1-0 and 10-6, as Poughkeepsie defeated Kingston, 8-7. Bridgeport copped a pair from Waterbury, 6-5 and 10-6, as a present for their new manager, Dan "Buddy" Hall.

The club leading the league through tomorrow gets the all-star tilt, meeting a team composed of luminaries from other members of the six-club loop.

Port Chester was only one-half game back of the Chief before last night's twin setback. Edward Hollo tossed a four-hit shutout at Port Chester in the opener, and Stamford pounded the pitchers for 15 hits in the nightcap.

Kingston outlived the Chiefs, 14-12, but a four-run sixth inning gave Poughkeepsie the nod after the home club came from behind three times to forge in front for keeps.

Bridgeport trailed in both games but came through for their new pilot with timely rallies.

Lesnevich Suggests Title Match With Jersey Joe Walcott
Brighton, England, July 15 (AP)—Gus Lesnevich thinks he and Jersey Joe Walcott should fight for the vacant world heavyweight title, and never mind about an elimination contest.

The 175-pound king, who is training here for a title bout with Freddie Mills at London on July 26, feels the issue is clear cut.

"I knocked out the two top heavyweights, contenders, Melio Bettina and Tami Maurelio," he pointed out. "At least, they were listed No. 1 and No. 2 when I stopped them."

"That should qualify me. Walcott was considered good enough to fight Joe Louis twice for the championship. Obviously, they thought he was the best challenger available."

"All right, who else is there? Ezzard Charles? I personally feel that Charles hasn't yet proved he can whip heavyweights. Elmer Violent Ray was the only one he ever beat who amounted to anything."

White Isn't Surprised
Lewiston, Me., July 15 (AP)—Sen. White, majority floor leader, said today he is "not greatly surprised" that President Truman has called Congress back into session July 26. "I'm not greatly surprised, but I have no comment to make," the senator told The Associated Press when advised of the President's announcement in accepting the presidential nomination at the Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia.

Parked Car Damaged
An automobile parked in front of 225 Albany avenue and belonging to Carl Warnecke of 54 Wrentham street was struck and damaged about 2:10 p.m. Wednesday by another car, the police reported. The driver of the other car, who police said was Frank Ambrose of 101 Foxhall avenue, was unable to locate Warnecke and reported the accident to police headquarters. Warnecke told police that the back end, tail light, spare tire rack, left rear fender and gasoline tank on his car had been damaged in the accident.

Pennant Hopefuls Are Not Worried About Road Trips
(By The Associated Press)
The Cleveland Indians and the Boston Braves, each striving to win their first major league pennant in years, open long road trips today, but the prospect of playing before hostile crowds doesn't faze them.
As the majors resumed activity after a three-day lull for the All-Star game, a survey showed both the American and National League leaders have won more games on the road than home.
Invading Philadelphia for a twilight-night doubleheader with Connie Mack's amazing Athletics, Cleveland boasted a remarkable .758 percentage on foreign fields. The Indians have lost only eight games on the road while winning 25. At home they have split, winning 20 and losing 20.
The Braves, starting their westward trip with a doubleheader at Chicago, have won 24 and lost 13 on the road. This is a .649 clip compared to the Braves' home mark 22-18 for .550.
The runnerup Athletics, only .616 points behind Cleveland, likewise are "torment" on the road. They have won 28 and lost 14 for .667, compared to a home percentage of .526.

Survey Shows Some Refuse Older Workers
Albany, N. Y., July 15 (AP)—A legislative investigating committee announced today that a survey of New York industry disclosed that more than one-third of the firms had rules prohibiting the hiring of older workers.
Senator Thomas C. Desmond, chairman of the joint legislative committee on problems of the aging, said:
"Our committee is reluctant at present to seek to set up in New York state any legal prohibitions of maximum age barriers in employment, knowing that they would be difficult to enforce."
"But we most certainly now are interested in stimulating industry to re-examine the needs for eliminating or modifying age barriers in the light of new scientific knowledge as well as in the long-range interest of industry itself."
The Newburgh Republican said the survey showed that older workers have better chances for jobs in smaller concerns than in large ones. He added that industry believed elderly employees were best fitted for either dead-end or monotonous positions or highly skilled work.

White Isn't Surprised
Lewiston, Me., July 15 (AP)—Sen. White, majority floor leader, said today he is "not greatly surprised" that President Truman has called Congress back into session July 26. "I'm not greatly surprised, but I have no comment to make," the senator told The Associated Press when advised of the President's announcement in accepting the presidential nomination at the Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia.

Parked Car Damaged
An automobile parked in front of 225 Albany avenue and belonging to Carl Warnecke of 54 Wrentham street was struck and damaged about 2:10 p.m. Wednesday by another car, the police reported. The driver of the other car, who police said was Frank Ambrose of 101 Foxhall avenue, was unable to locate Warnecke and reported the accident to police headquarters. Warnecke told police that the back end, tail light, spare tire rack, left rear fender and gasoline tank on his car had been damaged in the accident.

Lesnevich Suggests Title Match With Jersey Joe Walcott
Brighton, England, July 15 (AP)—Gus Lesnevich thinks he and Jersey Joe Walcott should fight for the vacant world heavyweight title, and never mind about an elimination contest.

The 175-pound king, who is training here for a title bout with Freddie Mills at London on July 26, feels the issue is clear cut.

"I knocked out the two top heavyweights, contenders, Melio Bettina and Tami Maurelio," he pointed out. "At least, they were listed No. 1 and No. 2 when I stopped them."

"That should qualify me. Walcott was considered good enough to fight Joe Louis twice for the championship. Obviously, they thought he was the best challenger available."

"All right, who else is there? Ezzard Charles? I personally feel that Charles hasn't yet proved he can whip heavyweights. Elmer Violent Ray was the only one he ever beat who amounted to anything."

which followed Mr. Truman's nomination.

O'Dwyer Parades

Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York, who sought some other candidate in the pre-convention maneuvering, paraded with other New York leaders in the demonstration. Coattails, his shirt soaked with perspiration and his tie pulled down, O'Dwyer could make only one circuit of the jammed convention aisles in the 38 minutes.

Miss Doris I. Byrne of the Bronx, vice-chairman of the Democratic state committee, made one of the Truman seconding speeches.

"After 16 years of Democratic administration," she said, "we are a united people, we are a secure people, we are a powerful people, we are a happy people, we are a prosperous people."

She declared it was Mr. Truman "whose patience, persistence and vision have been responsible for promoting and preserving this almost miraculous situation."

James A. Farley, former postmaster general, took a more active role in the convention than he has in political affairs recently. An early supporter of Senator Alben Barkley for the vice presidency, he made one of the seconding speeches for the Kentuckian.

New York's 98th assembly played a vital part in the adoption of the broadened civil rights platform plank at yesterday afternoon's session. The proposal, a major objective of the Empire State leaders, carried by only 33 1/2 votes more than the necessary 618 on a roll call.

The convention apparently made even more firm the leadership of Fitzpatrick and Edward J. Flynn, Bronx leader and former national chairman, in Democratic affairs in New York.

Both have steadfastly supported Mr. Truman for the past seven months while other leaders were looking for a different nominee.

With the shouting and parading ended, there remained a serious doubt among many of the New Yorkers that their ticket could beat Gov. Thomas Dewey and Gov. Earl Warren.

It seemed certain that the Democratic campaign, at least in the Empire State, would be based on two main themes—prosperity and a liberal stand on such issues as housing, cost-of-living control, Israel and federal aid to education.

Simple country life on a farm is said to be the most hazardous.

After this country went to war with Germany and Japan in 1941, the general, old and feeble, followed day-to-day developments closely from his hospital room, paying particular attention to "My Boys"—who included, besides Marshall, Generals Dwight D. Eisenhower and George S. Patton, Jr.

West Point Graduate

Born September 13, 1860, Pershing graduated from West Point when he was 26. He became a second lieutenant in the Sixth U. S. Cavalry in July of that year.

His appointment as general of the army was confirmed by the Senate 33 years later. Between those two dates, Pershing served in such military engagements as the Apache Campaign in New Mexico and Arizona in 1886, the Sioux Campaign four years later, the Spanish American War of 1898 and the Philippine Insurrection in 1913.

His appointment to the command of the American Expeditionary Force in 1917 was preceded the year before by command of the U. S. forces sent into Mexico after the Bandit Chief Pancho Villa.

Pershing took personal command of the American troops sent to France in World War I, and immediately became involved in a hot dispute with other Allied commanders, who wanted to break up the American Army and use it to reinforce the French and British armies wherever necessary.

The American general flatly refused to let his troops lose their identity—a position for which he still was under attack 20 years later from such men as Lloyd George, wartime British prime minister.

Pershing let such attacks pass without comment, though he remarked in one of his rare interviews in 1927:

"Without American support there is no doubt the war would have been lost to the Allies."

He sharply criticized the Allied decision to agree to a German armistice in 1918 without pressing beyond the River Rhine. If Allied troops had pushed on to Berlin, he said, all remnants of Prussian militarism could have been stamped out.

Pershing became chief of staff after the first World War in 1921. Three years later, at the age of 64, he retired.

Two Others Called Congress to Meet

Washington, July 15 (AP)—Historical footnote to President Truman's call for a special session of Congress:

Two other Presidents have called special sessions of Congress when it was controlled by the opposition party. Republican President Taft did it in 1911, to consider a reciprocal trade agreement with Canada. Democratic President Wilson did it in 1919 to get some appropriations bills passed.

In 1912, Taft was defeated in his bid for reelection. In 1920, the same thing happened to the Democratic candidate, James M. Cox.

Nazareth Circled;

tries were not giving in to pressure put on them by the western powers to renew the four-week truce that expired last Friday. He said the pressure had been "particularly exerted on Trans-Jordan."

The Jewish informants in Haifa said the Israeli enclave of Nazareth was brought about by the capture Tuesday night and yesterday of Shafa Amr, 11 miles northwest of there; El Mujidil, four miles southwest, and Bin Mahil, three miles east.

Day-long shelling and Israeli air action preceded final occupation of the three villages, they said, and Arab soldiers fled before the advance. Nazareth, traditional boyhood home of Jesus, is 1,480 feet above sea level and controls approaches to the all-Jewish Valley of Jezreel to the south and Tiberias to the northeast.

The U. S. Consulate in Jerusalem was reported in Cairo last night to have been hit and damaged slightly by two mortar shells. Nobody was hurt.

A communiqué of the Egyptian Defense Ministry said the Egyptian army bent off three Jewish counterattacks yesterday at Negba and Julis, 17 miles northeast of Gaza in the southern desert. The bulletin listed Egyptian air raids on Tel Aviv, nearby Aqir Airport and the Beir Haim settlement.

Home Power Workshop Is Being Displayed

Something new in the line of a complete power workshop for the home, farm or business is now on display in the window of the local Montgomery Ward store on North Front street.

The power tool is billed as "5 tools in one," and can be used for a horizontal drill press, wood lathe, drill press, circular saw and disc sander.

A special demonstration of this new Ward tool will be given at the local store on Friday and Saturday, July 16 and 17, and the public is invited to attend the demonstration.

Governor Dewey

Dewey headquarters is opened. Shortly before he arrives, Rep. Hugh D. Scott, Jr., of Philadelphia, national chairman, will go to Washington to assume personal direction of the committee's activities.

In a general way, Dewey discussed all the problems of the campaign last night with Brownell at a dinner conference following a cross-country telephone talk with his running mate, Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Interrupting his meeting with Brownell to hold a news conference, Dewey criticized the Democrats for the scope of the claims in their party platform.

The governor said the opposition claims credit for everything good that has happened "since the beginning of time."

Earlier in the day, after a meeting with John Foster Dulles, his foreign affairs adviser, Dewey took exception to what he called "extremely partisan and provocative" declarations on foreign policy in the Democratic party's platform.

The governor did not specify the assertions to which he objected.

The governor had a date with his dentist this morning before motoring back to his farm at Pawling, N. Y.

Governor Dewey

Dewey headquarters is opened. Shortly before he arrives, Rep. Hugh D. Scott, Jr., of Philadelphia, national chairman, will go to Washington to assume personal direction of the committee's activities.

In a general way, Dewey discussed all the problems of the campaign last night with Brownell at a dinner conference following a cross-country telephone talk with his running mate, Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Interrupting his meeting with Brownell to hold a news conference, Dewey criticized the Democrats for the scope of the claims in their party platform.

The governor said the opposition claims credit for everything good that has happened "since the beginning of time."

Earlier in the day, after a meeting with John Foster Dulles, his foreign affairs adviser, Dewey took exception to what he called "extremely partisan and provocative" declarations on foreign policy in the Democratic party's platform.

The governor did not specify the assertions to which he objected.

The governor had a date with his dentist this morning before motoring back to his farm at Pawling, N. Y.

Blitz Torso Found

London, (AP)—The torso of a 1941 blitz victim has just been found in a bomb ruins here.
